Participant Profiles

Raphael Adu-Gyamfi

Raphael Adu-Gyamfi is the program officer in charge of Pediatric and Adolescent HIV with the National AIDS/STI Control Program in Ghana. He is also the DSD focal person and a PhD candidate with the University of Ghana School of Public Health. Contact: radu-gyamfi@nacpghana.org

Ava Mrima Alphonce

Ava is an advocate for transgender rights and program implementation at Jinsiangu, a charity in Nairobi, Kenya that works to improve the lives of transgender, intersex, and gender diverse communities. Contact: avamrima@gmail.com

Susan Alwedo

Susan Alwedo is the care and treatment manager at TASO Uganda in the Soroti Region. Her current role involves strategic planning and coordinating MoH strategy implementation for HIV/AIDS and TB through technical capacity building of the public health workforce in the Soroti region. She is also team lead for the TB – Differentiated Service Delivery (DSD) pilot in the region. Contact: alwedos@tasouganda.org

Guita Cassepro Félix Amane

Amane is a National HTC focal point at the Ministry of Health in Mozambique. She is a graduate in Clinical Psychology and has been involved in the development of the HTC national guidelines. Contact: casseprov@gmail.com

Ivan Arinaitwe

Ivan Arinaitwe is Public health specialist with nine years of experience in patient care, HIV/AIDS management, DSD implementation, quality improvement, and project management. Contact: arinaitweivan63@gmail.com

Everlyne Ashiono

Everlyne Ashiono is the chief of party for USAID Dumisha Afya based in Kenya.
Contact: eashiono@ampath.or.ke
.

Winifred Naa Okarley Armah-Attoh

Winifred Armah-Attoh is a registered nurse, midwife, and public health practitioner. She is the head of the Prevention Care and Support Unit at the National AIDS/STI Control Program at the Ghana Health Service.
Contact: wattoh@nacpghana.org

Elsie Ayeh

Elsie Ayeh is the president of the Ghana Network of Persons Living with HIV (NAP+ Ghana). She holds a certificate from in NGO Management, a Master of Arts in Development Studies, a Post Graduate Diploma in Rural Policy and Project Planning and a Bachelor of Science degree in Agriculture. Contact: elsieayeh@gmail.com

Stephen Ayisi Addo

Stephen Ayisi Addo is the Ghana National AIDS/STI Control Program (NACP) manager and the principal investigator for the cooperative agreement between the Ghana Health Service and CDC-USG for strengthening laboratory and HMIS in Ghana. He is also chair of the DSD, ART and HIVDR technical working group of the NACP and a member of the programs committee of the Ghana AIDS Commission. Contact: saddo@nacpghana.org

Robinah Babirye

Robinah Babirye is an HIV advocate for young people living with HIV in Uganda. She works with young mothers living with HIV under the Mentor Mother UG initiative. She was the Miss Y+ 2015/2016. She has a Bachelors degree in Community Based Rehabilitation. She has been recognized by both international and local networks for the work she does in different communities. Contact: brobinah13@gmail.com

Baker Bakashaba

Dr. Bakashaba is the regional project manager for the Accelerating HIV Epidemic Control in Soroti Region Project for TASO Uganda, where he has managed HIV/AIDS programs for seven years, focusing on the design and implementation of facility- and community-based, client-centered projects, and health systems strengthening. Dr. Bakashaba has an MBChB Degree from the Makerere University in Uganda and is currently pursuing an MSc in Project Management at the University of Salt in the UK. He is a member of the CQUIN Advisory Group. Contact: bakashabab@tasouganda.org

Kelvin Tikhale Balakasi

Kelvin Tikhale Balakasi is a junior data scientist for Partners in Hope in Malawi. He has vast research experience, managing large randomized control trials in health, agriculture, and micro-finance. Balakasi is also a consulting member of the University of Malawi Center for Social Research and Wadonda Consulting in research methodologies, data management and analysis. He is currently an MSc in Epidemiology student at the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine. Contact: kelvin@pihmalawi.com

Gui Seble Mamo Bedaso

Seble Mamo Bedaso is a National HIV Testing Service (HTS) coordinator with more than 10 years of work experience as a public health professional with the Ethiopian Ministry of Health. Contact: seblemamo2014@gmail.com

Erica Ventura Bila

Erica Ventura Bila is the care and treatment advisor for DOD/FADM/PEPFAR in Mozambique. Prior to this role, she was the provincial clinical advisor of the GAZA Provincial Health Direction by EGPAF. She holds a degree in Medicine from the Eduardo Mondlane University, and a Master's in Public Health from the Catholic University in Maputo and a post-graduate course in Infectious Diseases from Lisbon University. Contact: bilae@state.gov

Serge Bisore

Serge Bisore is a public health specialist with experience in health project implementation, monitoring and evaluation studies, design, and implementation. Bisore is currently coordinating the implementation of PEPFAR's strategic information projects at JSI, Research and Training Institute where he works with the Burundi National AIDS/STI-Hepatitis Program to strengthen HIV information systems to improve the response to HIV pandemic. Contact: sergebisore@bi.jsi.com

Laura Block

Laura Block is a senior program officer for ICAP at Columbia University and CQUIN's deputy director for management and operations. Prior to joining ICAP, she supported health projects for several large international NGOs in sub-Saharan Africa and the Asia Pacific regions. She holds an MSc in Health Research from the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine, an MBA from the Cornell Johnson School of Business, and an MSc in Health Policy from Weill Cornell Medicine. Contact: lmb2279@cumc.columbia.edu

Koffi Simplice Bohoussou

Bohoussou is the DSD coordinator for the National AIDS Program (Programme Nationale de Lutte Contre le VIH-PNLS) in Côte d'Ivoire. He coordinates all stakeholders in pediatric HIV care and treatment and ensures the integration and scale up of pediatric HIV care and treatment interventions at all levels of Côte d'Ivoire's health system. Dr. Bohoussou holds a PhD in Medicine and an MBA in Health Services and Health Programs Management.
Contact: bohoussou.simplice@pnls-ci.com

Franck Euloge Boraud

Franck Boraud is an HIV clinical team leader at ICAP Côte d'Ivoire. Prior to joining ICAP, Dr. Boraud was a physician in Côte d'Ivoire's Agnibilekrou District Hospital, where he was the health district focal for malaria, pediatric HIV, QI, and nutrition. Dr. Boraud has over 12 years of experience as a doctor and public health professional.
Contact: bfe2102@cumc.columbia.edu

Kouro Bousso

Kouro Bousso is currently the Senegal DSD Coordinator at the Ministry of Health. She is a medical doctor, an infectious disease specialist, public health specialist, head of the monitoring and evaluation office at the DLSI.
Contact: kourobi@yahoo.fr

Samretta Carr Caldwell

Caldwell is the deputy manager for programs and clinical services at the National AIDS & STI Control Program in Liberia. She is currently supervising the national transition to Tenofovir/Lamivudine/Dolutegravir and a nationwide scale up of viral load testing to progress the second and third 90s of the global HIV targets. Ms. Caldwell is a nurse by profession and has worked in HIV service delivery for over seven years. She is a graduate of the University of New South Wales, Australia and has a double Masters in Public Health and Health Management. Contact: samretta1@gmail.com

Acucena Chauca

Acucena Chauca is a Mozambican physician with more than 12 years of experience working across all levels of the Mozambique health system, from the community to the national level. She has held technical leadership roles in several projects and organizations, and successfully worked at a senior policy level in HIV. She is currently the ECHO technical director. Previously, she was Technical Director of the community HIV project Hlayisa with N'weti in Mozambique. Contact: acucenachauca@echomoz.org

Thato Chidarikire

Thato Chidarikire is currently the director for HIV Prevention Programs in South Africa's National Department of Health. She is also acting chief director for child, youth and school health. Her current portfolio includes the management of HIV prevention programs. Within her acting portfolio she is responsible for EPI, youth and adolescent school health, child health and nutrition, and pediatric HIV treatment and management. She holds a PhD in Virology from the University of Witwatersrand. Contact: thato.chidarikire@health.gov.za

Pugie Tawanda Chimberengwa

Chimberengwa is a technical director at TASQC.
Contact: pchimberengwa@ophid.co.zw

Boniface Chione

Chione is a chief programs manager at Lighthouse Trust, an organization in Malawi. He is a public health specialist with over 10 years of clinical and managerial experience for HIV/TB programs in Malawi. Chione holds a Master of Science in Public Health from the International Telematic University in Rome, Italy, where he graduated with a dissertation on prevalence of advanced HIV disease among patients initiating ART at a referral level ART clinics in the era of test and treat. Contact: bchione@lighthouse.org.mw

Matilda Chisanga

Matilda Chisanga is an administration and finance officer at ICAP in Zambia. She has been working with ICAP and supporting CQUIN since 2017.
Contact: mc4444@cumc.columbia.edu

Alexander Christopher

Alexander Christopher is the associate director technical support of Tanzania Health Promotion Support (THPS), an indigenous NGO. He has over 15 years of experience working in donor funded programs focusing on HIV prevention, care and treatment; maternal and neonatal health, sexual and reproductive health, pediatric and child health, health systems strengthening, malaria and non-communicable diseases. He holds a master's degree in Pediatric and Child Health from Catholic University of Health and Allied Health Sciences. Contact: achristopher@thps.or.tz.

Fred Misumbi Chungu

Fred Misumbi Chungu is the executive director for the Network of Zambian People of Living with HIV and AIDS (NZP+). He has over 17 years of experience with the network and has a bachelor's degree in development studies.
Contact: fred.chungu@gmail.com

Wokie Cole

Wokie Cole is a woman and mother living with HIV. She works with support groups, organizations, and the national networks in and around Liberia to ensure women living with HIV stay healthy and in care. Ms. Cole also works with international groups like PAPWC and ICW, which have helped to strengthen advocacy for better treatment. She personally went through a PMTCT program in 2010 with her son who is HIV negative. Contact: wokiecole@gmail.com

Jonas Deve

Jonas Deve is the technical director at the Ariel Foundation in Mozambique. He has over 10 years of experience in programmatic management and implementation of programs at different levels, from district to province. Dr. Deve holds a post-graduate degree in Monitoring and Evaluation and is currently pursuing a Master's in Public Health. He received his medical degree from the Eduardo Mondlane University School of Medicine in Maputo, Mozambique.
Contact: jdeve@arielglaser.org.mz

Phephile Dlamini

Phephile Dlamini is a CQUIN project operations coordinator supporting countries in Southern Africa with ICAP in Eswatini. Contact: pd2503@cumc.columbia.edu

Immaculate Ddumba

Immaculate Ddumba is a public health specialist with over 10 years' experience in providing HIV care/treatment and support services. Ddumba has provided support to the health systems strengthening system of Uganda through a community focused lens. She is passionate about always providing care to communities, when and where they need it. She currently provides support to the adoption of Alternative Drug Distribution (ADDP) models for Uganda.
Contact: iddumba@usaid.gov

Gillian Dougherty

Gillian Dougherty is a senior quality improvement technical advisor at ICAP. Prior to this role, Ms. Dougherty served as the quality improvement advisor for CDC Tanzania in Dar es Salaam. Her experience includes working as a cardiac intensive care unit registered nurse in a level one trauma center in Denver, Colorado (1995-2005) and serving as a nurse consultant for the Lesotho -Boston University Health Alliance in Maseru, Lesotho (2006-2008). Ms. Dougherty received an MPH in International Health from Boston University.
Contact: gd2410@cumc.columbia.edu

Ginika Egesimba

Ginika Egesimba has over 16 years of experience in designing and implementing public health programs and a track record of starting up and closing out projects. Mr. Egesimba has a strong background in epidemiology, surveillance, research, protocol development, implementation science, quality improvement, and grant proposal development. Contact: Ginika.Egesimba@jhpiego.org

Gabriel Ekali

Dr. Ekali is the country director for ICAP in Cameroon. He is a medical doctor, epidemiologist, and public health professional with over a decade of experience in HIV/AIDS care and treatment as well as clinical research, program evaluation, health surveys, leadership, and strategic planning. Dr. Ekali holds an MD from the University of Yaounde and an MPH from the Catholic University of Central Africa, Cameroon. Contact: gle2016@cumc.columbia.edu

Helen Etya'ale

Helen Etya'ale is the program manager at the International Treatment Preparedness Coalition and supports the work of ITPC around its strategic pillar of building resilient communities, focusing primarily on treatment education and advocacy initiatives. She also supports work around community-led monitoring of health services in Africa, Latin America, and Southeast Asia. She has a background in public health program implementation and scientific publishing.
Contact: hetyaale@itpcglobal.org

Nathan Ford

Nathan Ford is a scientific officer for the Department of HIV/AIDS and Global Hepatitis Program at the WHO in Geneva. He is also chair of WHO's Guidelines Review Committee. Prior to joining the WHO in 2012, Dr. Ford worked with Médecins Sans Frontières for 14 years supporting HIV programs in multiple countries in southern Africa and Southeast Asia. He holds a degree in Microbiology and Virology, a Master's in Public Health and Epidemiology, and a PhD in Clinical Epidemiology. He is a Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh. Dr. Ford is also a member of the CQUIN Advisory Group.
Contact: fordn@who.int

Fatou Fall

Fatou Fall is a medical doctor and a venerologist specialist in charge of the coordination and implementation of the CDV (HTS) activities of the DLSI since 2018.
Contact: fafall30@yahoo.fr

Tefera Fana

Tefera Fana is a senior public health specialist with CDC Ethiopia's Care and Treatment branch. Dr. Fana is a technical expert for the implementation of the management of advanced HIV disease and cervical cancer prevention activities. Prior to that, she was the CDC acting branch chief for Care and Treatment for nearly two years. She also worked with PEPFAR as a strategic information advisor for more than a year. Contact: obi3@cdc.gov

Bayisa Chala

Bayisa Chala Feyisa is a program officer with NEP+, the national network of people living with HIV in Ethiopia, where he has served in various capacities including executive director over the past 20 years.
Contact: bayisachala@yahoo.com

Lucy Fidelis

Lucy Fidelis is public health specialist working on the prevention from mother-to-child transmission (PMTCT) in clinical branch services for CDC Tanzania. She is a medical doctor with a master's in public health methodology (MPHM). Contact: ofy3@cdc.gov

Jonathan Flomo

Jonathan Flomo is the program manager for the National HIV/AIDS Control Program, Ministry of Health, Republic of Liberia. He has extensive experience working in both clinical and public health settings. Dr. Flomo has successfully served two counties as county health officer providing strategic leadership and supervision for county health teams including coordination and collaboration with health partners. He is interested in improving both curative and the preventive HIV services in Liberia.
Contact: flomojonathan2@gmail.com

Tebong Fon Kandel

Tebong Fon Kandel is a senior HIV service delivery manager in charge of retention, viral load and advanced HIV disease at Elizabeth Glaser Pediatric AIDS Foundation (EGPAF), Cameroon. He has over six years of experience in HIV care and treatment and HIV-related research. Kandel holds a Doctorate degree in Medicine and a Master's degree in Public Health.
Contact: kfon@pedaids.org

Catherine Godfrey

Catherine Godfrey is the senior technical advisor for care and treatment, PEPFAR, Office of the Global AIDS Coordinator (OGAC). She currently leads PEPFAR's COVID-19 response and is championing activities aimed at reducing mortality for individuals living with HIV. Prior to her role at PEPFAR, Dr. Godfrey worked at the NIH and received the Constance Wofsy award from the AIDS clinical trials group for her scientific contributions to women's health and the Donna Davis award for contributions to the community. She is a fellow of the Royal Australasian College of Physicians, having spent many years in New Zealand as an infectious disease consultant and clinical head of medical subspecialties at a 700-bed teaching hospital in Auckland. Contact: qea0@cdc.gov

Masautso Goma

Masautso Goma is the acting provincial manager at USAID Action HIV- RTCZ based in Zambia. He has worked with the Ministry of Health, Zambia for nine years.
Contact: madaliso.goma@righttocare-zambia.org

Clorata Gwanzura

Clorata Gwanzura, is the differentiated care medical officer for HIV Care and Treatment at the MOHCC in Zimbabwe. With support from the CQUIN project, she supports differentiated care projects in the AIDS and TB focusing on the scale-up of DSD models nationwide. Dr. Gwanzura has over five years of experience working at various levels in the Zimbabwe MOHCC implementing and managing health programs, including HIV programming. Contact: cloratag@gmail.com

Hamsatou Hadja Epse Cherif

Hamsatou Cherif is the permanent secretary of the GTC/CNLS at the Cameroon Ministry of Health.
She received her MD from the University of Yaoundé.
Contact: hamsatou.hadja@cnls.cm

Nina Hasen

Nina Hasen is the vice president of HIV and TB Programs at Population Services International. Her team provides strategic guidance, technical assistance, and thought leadership for prevention, care and treatment programs in 30 countries across the globe. Dr. Hasen has worked extensively in sub-Saharan Africa, with a focus on making HIV testing programs more effective and human-centered, including effective linkages from community testing to HIV treatment programs. She holds a PhD in Zoology from the University of Wisconsin and a BA in English and Women's Studies from Oberlin College.
Contact: nhasen@psi.org

Siraji Shabani Hongo

Siraji Shabani Hongo is a program officer in the Care, Treatment and Support Unit (CTSU) for Tanzania's National AIDS Control Program. He is also the national coordinator for adult ART, advanced HIV disease (AHD), and other comorbidities among PLHIV such as NCDs interventions, introduction, and scale up of third line ART and HIVDR testing and integrated HIV and COVID-19 services.
Contact: dr.siraji.shaban@afya.go.tz

Joyce Icyimpaye

Joyce Icyimpaye is the technical director for Chemonics Rwanda currently working with the Global Health Supply Chain Procurement and Supply Management (GHSC-PSM). She is a supply chain professional with more than 14 years of experience in health supply chain management. She holds a bachelor's degree in pharmacy and a postgraduate diploma in Global Health Procurement and Supply Chain Management.
Contact: jicyimpaye@ghsc-psm.org

Basile Ikuzo

Basile Ikuzo is the director of the HIV Prevention Unit with Rwanda's Biomedical Center (RBC). He has a Bachelor of Medicine and Surgery from the University of Rwanda. Before joining the RBC, he worked as a medical officer.
Contact: basile.ikuzo@rbc.gov.rw

Chinyerem Frances Immanuel

Chinyerem Immanuel is the Care and Treatment lead on the RISE project in Nigeria where she provides technical oversight to teams across 103 health facilities in 5 states. She also provides technical oversight on the CQUIN DSD and GF DSD strategic initiative projects in Nigeria. She has an MSc in Health and Environment from Cranfield University in the United Kingdom. Contact: ci2243@cumc.columbia.edu

Chuy Richard Ingwe

Chuy Richard Ingwe is the head of the division in charge of the Democratic Republic of Congo's National Program on HIV/AIDS and STIs. He is also the national focal point for DSD services.
Contact: rchuy@outlook.fr

Gargar Moses Jackson

Gargar Moses Jackson is the national HIV Care and Treatment coordinator at the Liberia Ministry of Health. He is a physician assistant with a Bachelors Degree in Administration, a certificate in ART and Long-Term Adherence from TICA in Chengdu, China. He also holds a certificate in Pediatric ART from the Public Health Institute in Bangkok Thailand.
Contact: g.mosesjackson@yahoo.com

Ima John-Dada

Ima John-Dada is the focal person for HIV Testing Services (HTS) at Nigeria's National AIDS /STIs Control Program. Her responsibilities include coordinating national HTS activities developing and reviewing policy and training documents and national guidelines on HTS to standardize quality and effective HTS delivery. She is also responsible for ensuring the uptake of HTS by using innovative strategies and linking clients to treatment, care, and support services.
Contact: imajojn2002@yahoo.co.uk

Marline Jumbe-Kumbe

Marline Jumbe-Kumbe is a CQUIN regional M&E advisor for East Africa based at ICAP in Kenya. For the last 15 years, she has been extensively involved in implementation science and programs' monitoring, evaluation and learning with various donor funded programs including PEPFAR [USAID and CDC], GFATM, DFID and the EU. She has conducted training in M&E, taken an active role in program design and execution of rigorous quantitative and qualitative evaluative research in TB/HIV. Contact: mwj2113@cumc.columbia.edu

Joseph Kabanda

Dr. Kabanda is a public health specialist. For the past 10 years, Dr. Kabanda has worked to improve HIV/AIDS services in Uganda to achieve epidemic control in various capacities. He has a medical degree and Masters of Science in Public Health from Makerere University in Uganda.
Contact: ybk5@cdc.gov

Monique Kagabo

Monique Kagabo is the regional field officer for the Rwanda Network of People Living with HIV (RRP+). She has worked with RRP+ since 2005, coordinating activities for 465 volunteers living with HIV assigned to the community HIV response. She supports cooperatives of people living with HIV to find market for their products and helped young people living with HIV to form a support group. Contact: moniquekagabo.rrpplus@gmail.com

Victoria Kamara

Victoria Kamara is the HIV Testing Services (HTS) coordinator at the National AIDS Control Program, Ministry of Health and Sanitation, Sierra Leone. She oversees the HIV prevention, counseling, testing, and linkage to care strategy nationally. She has 11 years of experience working in Sierra Leone's HIV response. Contact: victoriakamara@yahoo.co.uk

Grace Kamau

Grace Kamau is the African Sex Workers Alliance regional coordinator in Nairobi, Kenya. She has a Bachelors in Sociology and Political Science from the Catholic University of Eastern Africa. She identifies as a female sex worker and has worked in the HIV field on key population issues for eight years. She has a passion for sex worker issues such as HIV prevention, human rights, and movement building. She has also worked as the national coordinator of the Kenya Key Population Consortium. Contact: grace@aswaalliance.org

James Kamuga

James Kamuga is a program officer in the Care, Treatment, and Support Unit for the Tanzania Ministry of Health. He is also the national coordinator for Pediatric ART, ART optimization, Accelerated Children on Treatment, Differentiated Service Delivery Models and Community ART. Additionally, in close collaboration with the Strategic and Information Unit of the NACP he is involved in conducting research to inform program/policies and monitoring of implementation of HIV care and treatment activities. Contact: dr.james.kamuga@afya.go.tz

Virginia Karanja

Virginia Karanja is the senior technical advisor for CIHEB Kenya. She is a medical doctor and infectious disease specialist with over 16 years of experience in clinical and public health service delivery in Kenya. She holds an MSc in Tropical and Infectious Diseases from the University of Nairobi, an MBChB from the University of Nairobi, and a CPAII from Strathmore University. Contact: vkaranja@cihebkenya.org

Saidi Karemangingo

Saidi Karemangingo is the national DSD technical advisor in Burundi, seconded to the Burundi Ministry of Public Health and the Fight Against AIDS by the CQUIN project. Prior to his current position, Karemangingo worked as the deputy director of the National Program for the Fight Against AIDS and Sexually Transmitted Infections. Contact: sk4993@cumc.columbia.edu

Cordelia Katurebee

Cordelia Katurebee is a pediatrician and child health specialist, and the current national coordinator for HIV care and treatment at the Uganda Ministry of Health's AIDS Control Program. She has over 15 years of experience in clinical care, strategic planning, and implementation of programs addressing HIV care and treatment for pregnant women and children infected with HIV. For the last three years Dr. Katurebee has been the coordinator for adolescent HIV services in Uganda.

Contact: katureebecordelia@gmail.com

Mathew Thomas Kawogo

Mathew Kawogo is the manager of community mobilization and engagement at Tanzania's National Council of People Living with HIV and AIDS (NACOPHA), where he coordinates the implementation of community-led monitoring (CLM) of HIV services. He has led the designing and adoption of CLM tools in Tanzania and currently serves as the liaison for the Key Population Forum, USAID/ PEPFAR, UNAIDS, the Government (MoH and LGAs), local CSOs and implementing partners on the CLM implementation. Contact: mathewkawogo@yahoo.com

Stella Kentutsi

Stella Kentutsi is the executive director of the National Forum of People Living with HIV/AIDS Networks in Uganda. Ms. Kentutsi is an expert in HIV/AIDS programming with over 15 years of experience in HIV. She holds a Master of Arts Degree in Development Studies and a Bachelor of Arts in Education. Contact: stella.kentutsi@nafophanu.org

Lawrence Khonyongwa

Lawrence Khonyongwa is the executive director of the Malawi Network of People Living with HIV. He has worked to improve the lives of communities living with HIV/AIDS for more than 20 years with resilient and sustainable systems for health. He is currently managing the Global Fund project on Sustainable and Resilient Systems for Health that aims to achieve the UNAIDS 90:90:90 targets towards ending AIDS by 2030. Contact: lawrencekhonyongwa@yahoo.co.uk

Noela Kida

Noela Kida is the executive assistant and administrator of ICAP Programs in Tanzania with 14 years of experience in office management. She holds a BA (Honors) in Political Science and Public Administration from the University of Dar es Salaam. Contact: nmk2121@cumc.columbia.edu

Bactrin Killingo

Bactrin Killingo is the treatment and education lead for ITPC. He is a medical doctor by training and has been involved in community HIV treatment education and advocacy for the past 10 years. As a palliative care practitioner, Dr. Killingo has worked in resource-poor communities facing insurmountable challenges regarding access to essential HIV medicines and has mobilized communities to advocate for increased access to HIV-related services. In addition, Dr. Killingo has been instrumental in empowering communities with the knowledge and skills necessary to mobilize resources and take charge of their own health and the small projects they run.
Contact: bkillingo@itpcglobal.org

Nicholas Kisyeri

Dr. Kisyeri is the Differentiated Service Delivery (DSD) advisor, seconded to the Eswatini National AIDS Program (ENAP) and the MOH to support the expansion of quality DSD services in Eswatini. He is a seasoned medical doctor with many years of experience in clinical care, including HIV/AIDS and TB prevention care and treatment. He has master's degree in Infectious Diseases, Master of Science in Community Health and Health Management in Developing Countries, and a diploma in HIV Management.
Contact: kisyerinicholas@gmail.com

Leocadie Koffi

Leocadie Koffi is CQUIN's regional operations coordinator for West Africa with ICAP in Côte d'Ivoire. Contact: lk2448@cumc.columbia.edu

Kouadio Yves Maxime Kouadio

Kouadio is is a medical doctor, with master's degrees in health economics, marketing management, and health professions education. He is health economist in the health system strengthening team with USAID Côte d'Ivoire. He has more than 10 years of experience in marketing for medical teams in the pharmaceutical industry.
Contact: ykouadiokouadio@usaid.gov

Djahoury Mathurin Kouadjale

Djahoury Mathurin Kouadjale is the Head of Care & Treatment Services at the PNLS in Cote d'Ivoire.
Contact: kouadjale.mathurin@pnls-ci.com

Konan Blaise Kouame

Konan Blaise Kouame is the head of HIV Testing Services at the National AIDS Control Program in Côte d'Ivoire, where he coordinates all interventions and stakeholders related to HIV Screening. Previously, he was chief physician at the Affalikro, Urban Health Center in eastern Côte d'Ivoire, where he was in charge of the management of the health center. He also served as the HIV focal point for the Abengourou health district. He holds a State Doctorate in Medicine.
Contact: kouame.blaise@pnls-ci.com

Rudo Kuwengwa

Rudo Kuwengwa is a clinical advisor with CQUIN. Dr. Kuwengwa has over 10 years of experience in HIV prevention, treatment, and care programs working with the Ministries of Health in Zimbabwe and the Kingdom of Eswatini. She has also worked with PEPFAR funded implementing partners leading strategy, development, program implementation, and budget monitoring for HIV prevention, care, and treatment programs. She holds a Masters in Public Health from the University of Western Cape in South Africa.
Contact: rk3182@cumc.columbia.edu

Brian Kwizera

Brian Kwizera is a medical doctor and a public health practitioner. He is currently the technical DSD Advisor at the Rwanda Biomedical Centre/Ministry of Health under the ICAP-CQUIN project. He holds a bachelor's degree in Medicine and Surgery from the University of Rwanda and a Master of Public Health from the University of Bradford, UK.
Contact: bk2803@cumc.columbia.edu

Landom Henry Shey

Landom Henry Shey is the executive director of the Cameroon National Network of Associations of people living with HIV/AIDS "ReCAP+." Shey is a graduate of the University of Buea with a B. Ed in science and education. He has more than 15 years of professional experience in public health especially in HIV care and treatment.
Contact: landomshey@yahoo.com

Lifanda Ebiama Lifanda

Lifanda Ebiama Lifanda is the DSD coordinator for Cameroon's and National AIDS Council (CNLS) in Cameroon.
Contact: lifanda.ebiama@cnls.cm

Liyandza Mamba

Liyandza Mamba is a social and behavioral scientist with vast experience in designing and implementing HIV linkages and retention programs in Eswatini. He holds a Master of public health degree (MPH) from University of Pretoria. He has over 12 years of experience working with NGOs in Eswatini. Mr. Mamba is currently coordinating the adherence, psychosocial, and linkages activities in the Manzini region for Georgetown University. Contact: lmm362@georgetown.edu

Lydia Mpango

Lydia Mpango is a public health practitioner with over 20 years of experience in HIV, TB, and PMTCT services as a clinician and at program level. She is the senior clinical services advisor for care and treatment for the USAID ASPIRE Project (EGPAF) Eswatini, providing national-level technical assistance to the Eswatini National AIDS Program for pediatric and adult care, treatment, and support. She also provides support in the planning, coordination, implementation, evaluation, and quality improvement of comprehensive services at regional and facility level. Contact: lmpango@pedaids.org

Amani Lokossue

Amani Lokossue is the ARV services technical advisor at the Prevention, Care and Treatment branch of CDC-Côte d'Ivoire. He is physician, epidemiologist, and specialist of infectious and tropical diseases. He is also the CDC focal point person liaising with the CQUIN Côte d'Ivoire team.
Contact: xbl4@cdc.gov

Priscilla Mwendayana Lumano-Mulenga

Priscilla Lumano-Mulenga is the PMTCT and DSD Programs national coordinator, for the Zambia Ministry of Health. Contact: priscillalloyd2@icloud.com

Claudio Edson Machalela

Claudio Edson Machalela is the technical director for the Jhpiego, Mozambique DOD project. He is a public health professional with 12 years of experience working with health facilities and families at district, provincial and national levels in Mozambique. He has provided guidance and technical assistance on capacity building at individual and organizational levels in specific areas, including STIs, HIV/AIDS, tuberculosis, malaria, and PMTCT for two international NGOs working in Mozambique. Contact: claudio.machalela@jhpiego.org

Hélder Macul

Hélder Macul is the DSD coordinator at the National STI HIV/AIDS Control Program with the Mozambique Ministry of Health. Contact: helder.macul@fgh.org.mz

Jonah Onentiah Magare

Jonah Magare works with the Kenya Ministry of Health, National AIDS and STI Control Program heading the HIV testing section. He is a medical doctor with over 13 years of public health experience in both health care service delivery and at national program level. Contact: jonentiah@nascop.or.ke

Mziwamadoda David Makapela

Mziwamadoda Makapela is a public health specialist at the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention in Pretoria. He has 20 years of extensive experience working in health and program management including HIV/AIDS and TB. His experience includes working for non-governmental organizations, the North-West Provincial Department of Health, and National Department of Correctional Services. Contact: puw7@cdc.gov

Rickie Malaba

Rickie Malaba is a public health specialist at the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention in Zimbabwe. He is responsible for the provision of technical assistance and quality improvement within public health programs. With over 10 years of experience working in various health systems, Dr. Malaba has developed expertise in public health practice, promoting health equity, public health management, setting up sustainable health delivery models, public health research, and improving the determinants of health within communities. Contact: qhf5@cdc.gov

Lufuno Charity Malala

Malala is the program manager for care and treatment-differentiated models of care (DMOC) at the South Africa Ministry of Health. She has over 15 years of experience at various levels of health service delivery. She has a Master's in Nursing Science from the University of Pretoria, South Africa. Her primary role within the Ministry of Health is to strengthen differentiated service delivery for HIV/AIDS services. Contact: Lufuno.Malala@health.gov.za.

Harriet Tembie Mamba

Harriet Tembie Mamba is the national HIV linkages coordinator at Eswatini National AIDS Program. She is a nurse-midwife by profession, with 28 years of experience in the public and private health care sector. She has vast experience working as a nurse and researcher within programs. She has a Masters of Public Health, and Bachelor of Arts in Advanced Nursing, with extensive practice in primary health care and sexual reproductive health issues. Contact: hmamba94@gmail.com

Musa Rally Manganye

Musa Manganye is the differentiated service delivery technical advisor and technical lead at South Africa's National Department of Health. Contact: musarally@gmail.com

Margaret Titty Mannah

Margaret Mannah is the program manager for the National Quality Management Program, RMNCAH, directorate at the Sierra Leone Ministry of Health and Sanitation. She is also an associate lecturer at the College of Medicine and Allied Health Sciences. Mannah is a midwife specialist with over 30 years of experience at clinical, academic, and public health institutions. She has a Masters in Internal Public Health and Sexual Reproductive Health from the Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine in the UK. Contact: mtmannah@yahoo.co.uk

Norman Manzi

Norman Manzi is the founder and director of Dream Village, a Rwandan NGO that supports over 4000 adolescents and young people living with HIV in 12 health facilities in Kigali city. He is an advocate for youth empowerment and research in sexual health and adolescent initiatives. Manzi is a 2018 fellow of the advocacy for cure academy and a member of the International AIDS Society.
Contact: manzi@dreamvillagerw.org

John Bosco Matovu

John Bosco Matovu is the CQUIN regional clinical advisor for East Africa based in ICAP Nairobi. Matovu is a medical doctor with specialist training in public health, hospital management, and monitoring and evaluation. Dr. Matovu is currently leading the development of CQUIN's differentiated HIV Testing Services (dHTS) dashboard. He has broad experience in HIV programming including designing and scaling up differentiated service delivery for HIV testing, care and treatment.
Contact: mjb2319@cumc.columbia.edu

Martin Madalitso Maulidi

Martin Maulidi is a clinician and a public health practitioner, currently working as an HIV care and treatment program officer with the HIV, AIDS, STI and VH Directorate of Malawi's Ministry of Health. He is also the pediatric and adolescent HIV lead. Maulidi is also the co-chair for the HIV Drug Resistance Expert Committee, and the desk officer for the Southern African Region ECHO (SARE).
Contact: mmaulidi@hivmw.org

Ange Mavula

Ange Mavula is the national executive secretary for the Congolese Union of People Living with HIV.
Contact: ange.mavula@ucopplus.org

Skhathele Mazibuko

Mazibuko is the care and treatment lead for PEPFAR Swaziland. Dr. Mazibuko has extensive HIV management experience that includes work as an HIV clinician at the facility level and a program officer at the provincial and national levels. A medical doctor by training, he graduated with an MBChB from the University of Zimbabwe in 2000 and later received training as a clinical epidemiologist at the University of Pretoria, South Africa.
Contact: mfu4@cdc.gov

Jean-Jacques Kouassi M'bea

Jean-Jacques M'bea is the strategic information advisor for ICAP and CQUIN in Burundi. Under the SI Director, he coordinates M&E activities, including data collection, reporting, analysis, dissemination, and QI. He works closely with programmatic and management staff to increase and enhance the quality and use of health information at site, district, and regional levels, to support informed program decision-making.
Contact: km2988@cumc.columbia.edu

Nkoso Aimé Mboyo

Nkoso Aimé Mboyo is the current director of PNLS in DRC.
Contact: dramboyo@gmail.com

Christine Mburu

Christine Mburu is CQUIN's regional operations coordinator for East Africa based in ICAP Kenya.
Contact: cm2936@cumc.columbia.edu

Angela Grace McBride

Angela Grace McBride is the executive director of the South Africa Network of People Who Uses Drugs (SANPUD). Contact: angela@sanpud.org

Mirtie Getachew Meselu

Mirtie Getachew Meselu is the HIV/AIDS program coordinator in the Disease Prevention and Control Directorate at the Ethiopia at the Ministry of Health. She has more than 10 years of clinical and programmatic experience in HIV. Prior to her current role, she was an M&E officer for the Global Fund and IGAD regional HIV/AIDS prevention partnership program for five years at Amhara Regional State HAPCO (sub national level).
Ms. Getachew holds an MPH.
Contact: mirtieyid@yahoo.com

Munamato Mirira

Munamato Mirira is the senior clinical advisor with USAID Eswatini. He provides broad technical oversight of the clinical portfolio in Eswatini. Munamato is also the USAID-Eswatini point-of-contact for the care & treatment and prevention of mother-to-child transmission of HIV programs. He is a medical doctor and holds several post-graduate qualifications in epidemiology, monitoring & evaluation methods, tropical medicine & hygiene, HIV management, and business administration.
Contact: mmirira@usaid.gov

Lerato Mokomele

Lerato Mokomele works as a differentiated care specialist at the USAID Health Office in South Africa. She is passionate about quality health care, research and health systems strengthening. She has previously worked as a Quality Improvement technical advisor. Mokomele is a professional nurse with over 10 year of experience in both public and private health care. She is also a part-time public health lecturer, who has served as a member of various health research committees. Contact: lmokomele@usaid.gov

Lazarus Momanyi

Lazarus Momanyi is the DSD technical advisor at ICAP in Kenya, seconded to NASCOP in the MOH to coordinate and support the design and scale up of DSD models. He is a medical doctor with over seven years of experience implementing various HIV prevention, care, and treatment programs.
Contact: lmomanyi@nascop.or.ke

Mbolela Marie-Agnès Mpuekela

Mbolela Mpuekela is a doctor involved in the care and follow-up of patients living with HIV. She is currently the Quality Insurance care officer at the MOH/PNLS in DRC.
Contact: mpuekelamarieagnes@gmail.com

Martin Msukwa

Martin Msukwa is a regional QI advisor for ICAP and currently leads the QI stream of work within the CQUIN project. He has more than 15 years of experience in the design, development, and implementation of large-scale international development programs in sub-Saharan Africa. Mr. Msukwa also supports Ministries of Health, international foundations and bilateral donors in the design and development of innovative country-level initiatives and continuous use of data to track program quality, outcomes, and impact across HIV projects.
Contact: mkm2209@cumc.columbia.edu

Rachel Mudekereza

Rachel Mudekereza is CQUIN's senior regional clinical advisor for West and Central Africa. She is based in Côte d'Ivoire.
Contact: rbm2141@cumc.columbia.edu

Veronicah Mugisha

Veronicah Mugisha is the country director with ICAP in Rwanda. Dr. Mugisha is a physician and public health specialist with over 30 years of clinical, research, and program management experience in the areas of HIV/AIDS, sexually transmitted infections, epidemic and disaster management. A Ugandan national, she received her medical and post-graduate degrees from Makerere University in Uganda. Contact: vm2208@cumc.columbia.edu

Solomon Huruva Mukungunugwa

Solomon Huruva Mukungunugwa is a project management specialist for HIV Clinical Services at USAID Zimbabwe.
Contact: smukungunugwa@usaid.gov

Chiedza Mundia

Chiedza Mundia is the national ART coordinator in the HIV Department at the Ministry of Health and Child Care in Zimbabwe. Contact: drchiedzamupanguri@gmail.com

Musonda Musonda

Musonda Musonda is the community ART advisor at USAID Zambia. Her role is to aid USAID-supported implementing partners to increase retention in care and treatment and improve clinical outcomes for patients on HIV treatment through facility and community-based interventions. She is a member of the national differentiated service delivery task force under the Ministry of Health, which has developed national guidelines and other key documents to scale-up the implementation of DSD interventions in the country. Contact: mmusonda@usaid.gov

Annamore Mutisi

Annamore Mutisi is a Zimbabwean medical doctor and public health specialist working for ZACH as a technical advisor for the HIV Prevention, Care and Treatment project supported by CDC. She has vast experience in HIV programming and DSD model implementation. She worked as a district medical officer for Hurungwe district, which was a pilot district for the DSD model project under the Ministry of Health and Child Care.
Contact: mutisia@zach.org.zw

Janet Mwambona

Janet Mwambona is a senior HIV/AIDS treatment advisor with the Walter Reed Army Institute of Research/US Department of Defense, Tanzania. She oversees the adult and pediatric/adolescent HIV/AIDS care and treatment components that include TB/HIV, PMTCT, and the management of advanced HIV disease and cervical cancer screening. She has a Medical Degree from the University of Dar Es Salaam, Tanzania, and an International Masters on Public Health (IMPH) from the Hebrew Hadassah University in Jerusalem.
Contact: mwambonajt@state.gov

Kampilimba Lina Mwango

Lina Mwango is deputy chief of party at CIHEB Zambia working in the community HIV prevention, testing, linkage to treatment, community-led monitoring, and COVID-19 vaccination program. She has expertise in HIV/AIDS community interventions health care management, programming, and implementation. Prior to her current role, she served as a research coordinator for a TB/HIV clinical study and worked in the Ministry of Health as a nursing officer managing the outpatient department for over eight years. Contact: lkmwango@cihebzambia.org

Tonderai Moses Mwareka

Tonderai Mwareka is the program officer for the Zimbabwe National Network of people living with HIV (ZNNP+). He is responsible for the coordination and representation of interests of people living with HIV in all Zimbabwe's 10 provinces. Mwareka has been instrumental in moving the DSD portfolio in Zimbabwe beyond community ART refill groups to rolling out other models such as family centered, diary spacing, fast-track, and facility adherence clubs. Contact: mwarekatm@gmail.com

Keith Mweebo

Keith Mweebo is the team lead for care and treatment in the Prevention Care and Treatment branch, CDC Zambia. He devotes most of his time working with CDC supported treatment partners and the Ministry of Health to advance programs to achieve HIV epidemic control. Dr. Mweebo also provides technical assistance to implementing partners. is one of the roles performed under his current portfolio. As a member of both the interagency and national technical working groups and the DSD task force, Dr. Mweebo works with other TB/HIV experts to streamline strategies aimed at accelerating performance of the HIV program in Zambia. Dr. Mweebo has massive experience in primary health care and is passionate about scaling up 6MMD to help decongest ART clinics in Zambia. Contact: npd8@cdc.gov

Laurienne Nahimana

Laurienne Nahimana is the laboratory focal at PNLS/STIs Burundi. Contact: s.nzeyimana@yahoo.fr

Lillian Mworeko

Lillian Mworeko is the executive director for the International Community of Women Living with HIV Eastern Africa. She is a gender, human rights, and women's rights defender who has won numerous awards for her advocacy work. She served as a member of the global community advisory board for ECHO trial. Ms. Mworeko is currently the Co-Convener of the Household Settings Thematic Working Group of the Global Partnership for Action to Eliminate all Forms of HIV-related stigma and discrimination together with UN Women. She is also a member of the WHO PMTCT Global Validation Advisory Committee. Contact: lmworeko@icwea.org

Jane Nakaweesi

Jane Nakaweesi is a pediatrician with14 years of experience in managing HIV. She completed her Master of Medicine in Paediatrics and Child Health from the Makerere Universityi n Uganda in the year 2007 and a Master's in Public health from the University college Cork, Ireland (2016). Jane currently works as the Senior Technical Program Manager a role that involves giving technical oversight to all the projects supported by Mildmay Uganda. Contact: jane.nakaweesi@mildmay.or.ug

Evangelina Inacio Namburete Bauaze

Evangelina Inacio Namburete Bauaze is an infectious diseases doctor. She has served as the PEPFAR strategic information advisor in Mozambique since January 2022. Before joining PEPFAR, she spent 14 years with the National Health System in Mozambique in various positions from general director of Provincial Hospital to head of department and programs, and senior researcher. Contact: bauazeeI@state.gov

Felix Ndagije

Felix Ndagije is ICAP's country director in Lesotho. Dr. Ndagije is a global health professional with over 20 years' experience in design, implementation, evaluation, and scale up of HIV prevention, care, and treatment programs with ministries of health, implementing partners, United Nations agencies, and CDC/PEPFAR. He has technical expertise in health systems strengthening, maternal and child health programs, TB/HIV, and non-communicable diseases. Contact: fn2197@cumc.columbia.edu

Ndeye Bineta Ndiaye

Ndeye Bineta Ndiaye is the head of Care and Treatment at the Senegal Ministry of Health. Contact: binetacoulibaly@yahoo.fr

Aka Jules N'draman

Aka N'draman is the technical director at the Fondation Ariel Glaser in Côte d'Ivoire. Dr. Abokon holds a Doctorate in Medicine from the University of Bouaké. Contact: jndraman@arielglaser.ci

Serge Christian Tchokonte Ngande

Serge Ngande is the technical advisor for HIV care in adults with ICAP in Cameroon. Dr. Ngande is a seasoned medical doctor with a Masters in Public Health from the University of Liège in Belgium. He was previously a project manager for the NAMSAL project (a comparative study between dolutegravir and efavirenz), before joining the PEPFAR ICAP program. Contact: scn2123@cumc.columbia.edu

Stanley Ngoma

Stanley Ngoma is the program officer for HIV treatment, care, and support and focal point person for DSD Models for the Department of HIV at the Malawi MOH. Mr. Ngoma is a member of the national HIV technical working group and has participated in the development of national HIV guidelines, policies, tools, job aides and SOPs to promote and standardize good clinical practice within the national HIV treatment and care program. He studied at the Warwick Medical School. Contact: sngoma@hivmw.org

Khumbo Ng'ona

Khumbo Ng'ona is the prevention program officer and team lead for HIV, syphilis and viral hepatitis testing within the Department of HIV/AIDS and Viral Hepatitis (DHA) under the Malawi Ministry of Health and Population. She holds a Bachelor of Science in Nursing and Midwifery from the University of Malawi and is currently pursuing a Masters of Public Health at the Kamuzu University of Health Sciences in Malawi. Contact: knamachapa@hivmw.org

Alexandre Magloire Nguimfack Ngouatou

Alexandre Ngouatou is the HIV treatment team lead for CDC Mozambique. Dr. Nguimfack has spent over 27 years supporting clinical service delivery, community health programs and health systems. He holds a Doctorate degree in Medicine from Cameroon, and a master's degree in public health from the School of Public Health at the Catholic University of Louvain, Brussels, Belgium. He also holds a degree in advanced health management from Yale University. Contact: por4@cdc.gov

Benjamin Nicayenzi

Benjamin Nicayenzi is the national coordinator of the Burundian Network of people living with HIV/AIDS (RBP+) and secretary general within the consultative and decision-making framework of PLWHIV organizations in Burundi (CCDP +). Nicayenzi is a clinical psychologist with more than 20 years of experience working within communities living with HIV. Contact: nicibenjy2018@gmail.com

Tamrat Assefa Nigatu

Tamrat Nigatu is the regional support director for ICAP in Ethiopia. He is a registered nurse with two masters in public health – one from Addis Ababa University, Ethiopia, and the other in Health Systems Management and Policy from the Institute of Tropical Medicine in Antwerp, Belgium. Contact: ta2302@cumc.columbia.edu

Zeye Masunga Nkomela

Zeye Nkomela is a program officer with HIV Testing Services at Tanzania's Ministry of Health National AIDS Control Program. His core responsibility is to coordinate HIV testing services across the country by providing leadership and direction to achieve global 95-95-95 targets to attain epidemic control.
Contact: mzeye@yahoo.com

Christelle Bakoue Pamen Epouse Noubibou

Christelle Noubibou currently works at the sub-directorate for the Fight against HIV/AIDS-STI-Tuberculosis at the Ministry of Health in Cameroon.
Contact: nguenouchristelle4@gmail.com

Jean Bosco Nsengiyumva

Jean Bosco Nsengiyumva is a medical doctor with over 16 years of experience in HIV and health care. Dr. Nsengiyumva is the epidemic control lead for the RISE project with ICAP in Burundi where he oversees the implementation of HIV care and treatment programs.
Contact: jn2754@cumc.columbia.edu

Lazarus Ntarh

Lazarus Ntarh is a financial analyst at USAID Cameroon.
Contact: lntarh@usaid.gov

Peter Machi Nwaokenneya

Peter Nwaokenneya is the assistant director for adult ART, TB/HIV treatment, care, and support for the Nigeria National AIDS and STI Control Program, Department of Public Health, Federal Ministry Of Health, Abuja. Contact: nwokenapet@gmail.com

Clara Munyaradzi Nyapokoto

Clara Munyaradzi Nyapokoto is a program officer at the Eswatini National AIDS Program. She is the chair of the National HIV drug resistance clinical expert committee and the current HIV guidelines review team. Nyapokoto has over 12 years of experience in HIV clinical management.
Contact: claramunyaradzi@gmail.com

Sarah Nzyoka

Sarah Nzyoka is the retention and CQI lead with CIHEB Kenya –(CONNECT Program) in Nairobi, Kenya. She has a Masters in Global Health and Innovations from the University of Maryland Baltimore with a background in clinical medicine. She has over 10 years of experience in HIV programming. Contact: snzyoka@cihebkenya.org

Nkechi Anthonia Okoro

Nkechi Okoro is a community and social development worker with a Masters (MSc) in Social Work - focusing on community development and social welfare. She currently works at the national headquarters of the Network of People Living with HIV in Nigeria (NEPWHAN) as the M&E manager, coordinating M&E activities and providing technical support to NEPWHAN systems including state M&E officers. Contact: nkemokoro2013@gmail.com

Soukeye Ndiaye

Soukeye Ndiaye is the president of the national network for People living with HIV (RNP+) in Senegal. Contact: bokjomgeo@hotmail.com

Violet Oramisi

Violet Oramisi is a CQUIN regional strategic information advisor for East Africa based at ICAP Kenya. She has extensive experience in the management and implementation of National- and Sub-national health programs with a focus on M&E of HIV treatment, PMTCT, HTS, and PrEP. She previously worked as a program manager in the Strategic Information Research Implementation unit at NASCOP, Kenya. Contact: vao2112@cumc.columbia.edu

Nelson Juma Otwoma

Nelson Otwoma is the director for the National Empowerment Network of people living with HIV/AIDS in Kenya (NEPHAK). He is a member of the Kenya CCM to the Global Fund, the Kenya HIV Tribunal, and a board member of the global network of people living with HIV (GNP+). Otwoma is also a member of the expert advisory group of the Medicines Patent Pool Foundation (MPPF). Contact: notwoma@nephak.or.ke

Efua Owusu

Efua Owusu is a senior communications officer with ICAP in New York where she serves as the CQUIN communications lead. She has a Masters in Journalism from the Columbia University Graduate School of Journalism. Contact: eea2132@cumc.columbia.edu

Edna Maura De Castro Puande

Edna Maura De Castro Puande is clinical psychologist coordinating the development guidelines, supervision and technical support of psychosocial support, human rights and communications for people living with HIV at the Mozambique Ministry of Health. She is also works at a clinical practice. De Castro is currently pursuing her Masters in Public Health. Contact: maurapaunde@gmail.com

Peter Preko

Peter Preko is the project director for ICAP's CQUIN Learning Network. Dr. Preko has had roles with the Malawi MOH, CDC Eswatini, AED-SHARP, and Engender Health in Ghana. Dr. Preko began his career in HIV work as the CEO and co-founder of AIDS ALLY, a local NGO that provided care and treatment in Ghana before national HIV treatment programs started in Africa. He has a BSc in Human Biology, medical degrees from the Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology in Ghana, and an MPH from LSHTM. Contact: pp2332@cumc.columbia.edu

Grace Rabut

Grace Rabut is the Pediatric and Adolescent ART manager at Kenya's National HIV and STI Program. She also works with the Field Epidemiology and Laboratory Training program (FELTP). Rabut has a Bachelor of Medicine and Surgery (MBChB) and a Masters in Business Administration in Health care Management.
Contact: grabut@nascop.or.ke

Miriam Rabkin

Miriam Rabkin is the director for Health Systems Strategies at ICAP and the principal investigator for the CQUIN project. Dr. Rabkin has worked in the HIV/AIDS field for 20 years, focusing on strengthening health systems to improve the delivery of prevention, care, and treatment services for underserved populations. Her current research focuses on implementation science and leveraging the successes and lessons of HIV scale-up to strengthen broader health systems amd enhance the quality of programs for HIV, maternal/child health, non-communicable diseases, and infection prevention and control in sub-Saharan Africa, and to improve refugee health services in Turkey, Jordan, and Lebanon. Contact: mr84@cumc.columbia.edu

Claire Raether

Claire Raether is the training and education specialist in the Human Resources for Health department at ICAP at Columbia University. She specializes in developing competency-based education and training programs for various cadres of public health professionals, as well as supporting student initiatives to prepare the next generation of the public health workforce. She holds a Master's in Education from CUNY Brooklyn College and has a background in International Economics and African Studies. Contact: cr3144@cumc.columbia.edu

Bill Reidy

Bill Reidy is the deputy director for the Strategic Information Unit with ICAP and an assistant professor of Epidemiology at the Columbia University Mailman School of Public Health . He has more than 15 years of experience in HIV/AIDS program implementation, research, and evaluation. At ICAP, Dr. Reidy is an investigator and collaborator on numerous studies and projects which aim to optimize HIV/AIDS programs. He has also provided key support for implementation of large-scale or targeted government-led HIV/AIDS programs in countries including Eswatini, Myanmar, South Africa, Tanzania, and Kenya.
Contact: wr2205@cumc.columbia.edu

Marie Noëlla RURIHOSE

Marie Rurihose is the head of the global support care, counseling and laboratory service and focal point for HIV/tuberculosis co-infection at the PNLS/STI of the Burundi Ministry of Health. Contact: rihoseno@gmail.com

Gallican Rwibasira

Gallican Rwibasira is the head and division manager of HIV, STIs, and Hepatitis programs and other Viral Disease Control at the Rwanda Biomedical Centre. He is an active member of different national and regional technical working groups on HIV, STIs and Hepatitis programs. He has a Doctorate in Medicine from Cameroon, and a Masters in Public Health from the School of Public Health, Catholic University of Louvain, Brussels, Belgium. He also holds a degree in Advanced Health Management from Yale. Contact: gallican.rwibasira@rbc.gov.rw

Linda Sande

Linda Sande is a health economist working on the Gates funded Retain6 project. Retain6 is a research project aimed at optimizing HIV treatment during a patient's first six months. Sande is also completing her PhD in health economics with the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine. Her previous research work has included equity and economic evaluation of point of care diagnostics for malaria, COVID-19, and HIV (including HIV self-testing) in the Southern Africa region.
Contact: linda.sande@lshtm.ac.uk

Sage Semafara

Sage Semafara is the executive secretary for the Rwanda Network of people living with HIV and AIDS (RRP+). Before joining the network, Ms. Semafara worked at GIZ and the Rwanda Ministry of Health. Ms. Semafara obtained her MBA from the Oklahoma Christian University.
Contact: ssage.rrpplus@gmail.com

Beata Sangwayire

Beata Sangwayire is the HIV Testing Services coordinator with the Ministry of Health/ Rwanda Biomedical Center. She has a Masters in Social Sciences, Gender and Development and a Bachelors in Public Health. She has worked with ICAP at Columbia University as a pediatric HIV training coordinator based at KUTH. Previously, she was the acting director for HIV Prevention Unit within the HIV/AIDS, STIs and OBBI division. Contact: beata.sangwayire@rbc.gov.rw

Gabsile Shabangu

Gabsile Shabangu is the deputy director of operations for ICAP in Eswatini. Contact: gs2766@cumc.columbia.edu

Tafadzwa Sibanda

Tafadzwa Sibanda is the technical director for a five-year USAID/PEPFAR funded HIV care and treatment project, which is being implemented in two provinces in Zimbabwe and supports 372 sites. Tafadzwa serves in the National Advanced HIV Disease (AHD) and HIV Prevention Technical working groups. She also sits on the Zimbabwe HIV Clinicians Society committee, which is a technical advisory function to the Zimbabwe MOHCC. Contact: tpsibanda@zhi.co.zw

Kombatende Sikombe

Kombatende Sikombe conducts research in implementation science of HIV programs, primary care, and public health at the Center for Infectious Disease Research in Zambia (CIDRZ). Sikombe previously led the "Better Information for Health in Zambia," project in 32 facilities across 4 provinces in Zambia whose findings informed the importance of assessing patient experiences in Zambia. He is currently pursuing a PhD with the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine. Contact: kombatende.sikombe@cidrz.org

Lindiwe Mondy Simelane

Lindiwe Simelane is the director for Dream Alive Eswatini, an organization for people living with HIV. She has a Bachelors in Adult Education from the University of Eswatini. Contact: lindzsim@yahoo.com

Idrissa Songo

Idrissa Songo is the founder and executive director of the Network of HIV Positives in Sierra Leone. He is a passionate advocate for the promotion and protection of human rights, especially for people living with HIV. Ernest Bai Koroma, former Sierra Leonean president, awarded Mr. Songo the prestigious National Insignia Award – Member of the Order of the Rokel (MOR), for his commitment to HIV/AIDS in 2017. Mr. Songo is an electrical engineer by profession.
Contact: nethips2006@yahoo.com

Nandita Sugandhi

Nandita Sugandhi is an associate research scientist and senior pediatric technical advisor with ICAP. She is a pediatrician with over 15 years of experience working in HIV Care and Treatment Programs in New York and sub-Saharan Africa. Prior to joining ICAP, Sugandi worked with the Clinton Health Access Initiative and Baylor International Pediatric AIDS Initiative.
Contact: nss14@cumc.columbia.edu

Maureen Syowai

Maureen Syowai is a regional technical advisor for ICAP in Kenya. She leads the CQUIN advanced HIV disease community of practice and also supports the OPTIMIZE project – a consortium using innovation and partnership to accelerate the introduction of better, less expensive ART regimens for HIV patients in low- and middle-income countries. Dr. Syowai is a physician and public health specialist. In her previous role at ICAP, she worked to support NASCOP to design, implement, and monitor DSD for HIV in Kenya.
Contact: ms4063@cumc.columbia.edu

Geoffrey Taasi

Taasi is the team lead for HTS at the Uganda Ministry of Health AIDS control division. He has steered policy reviews and the adaptation of novel approaches to HTS such as assisted partner notification and HIV self-testing. With experience spanning over 10 years in HIV programming and development work, Taasi is passionate about research and has co-authored 29 peer reviewed publications around HIV testing, case identification, cost and cost effectiveness of HTS models, integration of depression management in HIV care, among others. Contact: taasi.taasi@gmail.com

Francis Kekula Tamba

Francis Kekula Tamba is an M&E officer working with the National AIDS Control Program at the Ministry of Health in Sierra Leone. Contact: ftamba66@yahoo.com

Serge Christian Ngande

Serge Ngande is the technical advisor for HIV care in adults with ICAP in Cameroon. Dr. Ngande is a seasoned medical doctor with master's degree in public health "epidemiology and health economics" from the University of Liège (Belgium). He was previously a project manager for the NAMSAL project (a comparative study between dolutegravir and efavirenz) before joining the PEPFAR ICAP program.
Contact: scn2123@cumc.columbia.edu

Dessalegn Tesfaye

Tesfaye is the senior supply chain advisor for USAID in Rwanda. He has over 22 years of experience supporting public health supply chain and commodity security. He holds a B. Pharm, Masters in Public Health (MPH), and a Masters in Business Administration (MBA). Contact: dtesfaye@usaid.gov

Aminata Thiam

Aminata Thiam is a senior technical advisor with FHI 360, Senegal. She works on clinical service integration for the EpiC/USAID project. Dr. Thiam's work experience includes working in tropical disease control at the Institute of Tropical Medicine in Antwerp, and in HIV as the head of monitoring and evaluation for Senegal's National AIDS and STI Control Division. Contact: athiam@fhi360.org

George Tidwell

George Tidwell is the country office director for the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) in Sierra Leone, HRSA's first overseas posting. He also supports HRSA's activities in neighboring Liberia. Mr. Tidwell has over fifteen years of experience working in public health in the U.S. and globally. He has worked on global health activities funded under PEPFAR since 2009. He has a master's degree in health and medical services administration and spent the early part of his career working in hospital administration and clinical effectiveness.
Contact: gtidwell@hrsa.gov

Isabelle Tuyishime

Isabelle Tuyishime is a doctor-mentor coordinator at Rwanda Biomedical Center. Contact: tuyisabelle@gmail.com

Simeon Tuyishime

Simeon Tuyishime is the director of HIV/AIDS care and treatment under the HIV, STIs, Viral Hepatitis and other Viral Diseases Control (OVDC) Division of the Rwanda Biomedical Center. Dr. Tuyishime was trained at the University of Rwanda, School of Medicine, College of Medicine and Health Sciences in General Medicine. Contact: simeon.tuyishime@rbc.gov.rw

Sharon Umutesi

Sharon Umutesi is the maternal and newborn senior officer for the Maternal, Child, and Community Health Division of the Rwanda Biomedical Center.
Contact: sharon.umutesi@rbc.gov.rw

Chiamaka Adline Uzomba

Uzomba is a researcher, program manager and social justice advocate with over 7 years of programmatic and research experience working in the gender, youth, and social development space in Nigeria. Her expertise covers the field of gender equality, sexual and reproductive health and rights (SRHR), HIV/AIDS, human rights, and political economy. Chiamaka holds a master's degree in development studies and is currently the program management officer supporting the National AIDS and STIs Control Program in differentiated service delivery scale up for HIV in Nigeria. Contact: cuzomba.dsd@gmail.com

Nicolas Vako

Nicolas Vako is the executive director of the Ivorian Network of Organizations of people living with HIV. Prior to this position, he was the president of the Network for HIV/Hepatitis co-infection, tuberculosis, regional delegate for the Red Cross and the Red Crescent. Mr. Vako was also secretary general of the Côte d'Ivoire Red Cross.
He has a Masters in Communications for Development.
Contact: vakoaymenicolasjeanclaude@gmail.com

Greet Vandebriel

Greet Vandebriel is the technical director for ICAP in Burundi. She is a medical doctor specialized in tropical medicine and public health with advanced training in TB and TB/HIV management, and quality improvement.
Contact: gv2124@cumc.columbia.edu

Natalie Bessiana Vlahakis

Natalie Bessiana Vlahakis is a community interventions specialist with 15 years of experience in the public health sector and over 10 years of experience in HIV programs, policies, and initiatives. She currently leads community components of the HIV program at CIDRZ, Zambia, which includes DSD, HIV testing, and HIV prevention.
Contact: natalie.vlahakis@cidrz.org

Jeffery Walimbwa

Jeffery Walimbwa is the program manager at ISHTAR Kenya, a community-based organization that advances the sexual health rights of men who have sex with men. Mr. Walimbwa has taken part in various activities on advocacy, policy, and strategy formulation and analysis. He is experienced in evidence-based HIV and sexual health programming and has sat on a variety of technical working groups at the national level. Mr. Walimbwa has a keen interest in community research and is a co-chair of the G10, a research agency at the Gay and Lesbian Coalition of Kenya. Contact: jwalimbwa@ishtarmsm.org

Joslyn Walker

Joslyn Walker the program manager for the South Africa Sustainable Response to HIV and AIDS (SA SURE) project. The focus of the project – funded by PEPFAR through the CDC and implemented by Health Systems Trust in four districts in the KwaZulu-Natal Province – is on care and treatment support for public sector facilities. Joslyn has worked in the development arena for 22 years, 13 of which have centered on PEPFAR-funded initiatives.
Contact: joslyn.walker@hst.org.za

Alemtsehay Abebe Woldemicheal

Alemtsehay Abebe Woldemicheal is a public health specialist and works at the Ethiopia Ministry of Health as the HIV Prevention, Care and Treatment Program officer and DSD coordinator. Contact: abalem72@gmail.com

Sinokuthemba Xaba

Sinokuthemba Xaba is the deputy national HIV prevention coordinator at the Ministry of Health and Child Care in Zimbabwe. He has been in the leadership of the national VMMC program since its inception. He has over 20 years of experience dedicated to HIV and AIDS work in various capacities. He has a Masters in Development with a major in health and community development. Contact: xabasino@gmail.com

Anele Boyce Yawa

Anele Yawa is a human rights activist and the general secretary for the Truth and Action Committee (TAC) in South Africa. He plays a critical role in fostering communication and diligence by managing essential records such as meeting minutes and the organization's bylaws, ensuring accurate and sufficient documentation and continuity of policies, and providing advice and resources to the TAC board of directors on governance issues, and assists in fulfilling fiduciary duties. Contact: anele.yawa@mail.tac.org.za

Valentin Nitereka

Nitereka is an IT developer with 29 years of experience. He holds a degree in computer sciences from the University of Burundi, Polytechnic section. He has developed many country-wide applications in diversified domains, including the Burundi national software used to manage health information for people living with HIV in health facilities, SIDAInfo. He has worked as an IT developer and expert in public and private IT institutions since 2009, and in HIV-oriented projects funded by international donors, including the World Bank, the GFATM, and PEPFAR. Valentin has strong experience in database management, including specialized domains such as GIS and biometric systems. He has experience in IT solutions design and implementation, in training of end users, super-users, and system administrators, and in IT project management. Contact: valentin_nitereka@bi.jsi.com

Daniel Wandina

Wandina is as an HTS and prevention senior technical officer with Goldstar Kenya under the USAID Tujenge Jamii consortium covering 4 counties (Nakuru, Baringo, Laikipia, Samburu). He leads the implementation of HIV identification linkage, longitudinal HTS case management, and prevention through quality improvement strategies. Over his HIV programing journey, he has contributed to developing and reviewing various national adherence, psychosocial and retention guidelines. Contact: nacoumba.coulibaly@jhpiego.org

Nacoumba Coulibaly Epouse Yeo

Nacoumba Coulibaly Epouse Yeo is the senior community health advisor for the RISE Project at JHPIEGO in Côte d'Ivoire. She is a public health doctor with 21 years of experience in the fight against HIV/AIDS. Contact: nacoumba.coulibaly@jhpiego.org

Emmanuel Yoboka

Emmanuel Yoboka is a medical doctor and epidemiologist. He joined the Ministry of Health as a medical supervisor, responsible for overseeing and enforcing compliance to different guidelines in Rwanda's medical practice. He was later designated to head a CDC-funded cooperative agreement, a project which supports almost 50 percent of the Rwanda's HIV Program. He is also a member of different technical working groups in HIV and TB Programs and has participated in the design and implementation of different guidelines and protocols. Contact: yobemma@gmail.com

William Zaza

William Zaza is the HIV testing services officer at the Liberia Ministry of Health. Contact: wkzaza@gmail.com