

Elaine Abrams

Senior Research Director, ICAP at Columbia University

Dr. Elaine Abrams is a global expert in HIV prevention and treatment, a professor at Columbia University, and a founding member of ICAP at Columbia University. She leads various studies focusing on HIV prevention and treatment for pregnant women, children, and families, contributing significantly to global HIV policy through leadership roles in the IMPAACT network and the WHO Pediatric Antiretroviral Working Group.

Chauca Açucena

ECHO Technical Director, Pathfinder International

Luisa Açucena Chauca is a Mozambican physician with more than 12 years of experience working across all levels of the Mozambique health system, from the community to the national level. She has worked directly with HIV for more than 11 years, held technical leadership roles in several projects and organizations, and successfully worked at a senior policy level. She is currently the ECHO technical director.

Adetunji Adedokun

Senior Technical Advisor, ICAP in Nigeria

Adetunji Adedokun Ayodele, currently serving as senior technical advisor for COVID-19RM TA, is responsible for leading the C19RM TA team and providing case management epidemiology support to the Federal Ministry of Health in Nigeria. Prior to this, he held the position of epidemic control advisor at the TMEC RISE Project in Niger State. Adetunji holds an MBBS and an MPH.

Rowland Adukpo

Laboratory Advisor, National AIDS/STI Program, Ghana

Mr. Rowland Adukpo has over 20 years of practice as a medical laboratory scientist with a strong passion for implementation of laboratory quality management systems. Currently, he is the laboratory advisor/focal person for the National AIDS/STI Control Program in Ghana.

Ava Heather Mrima Alphonse

Communications Lead, Jiansangu Kenya

Ava Heather Mrima is a human rights advocate with a focus on trans* and queer rights. Her current position, and her work with the National Transgender Advocacy Network are at the core of her advocacy work. Her roles include coordinating communications through the organization with various stakeholders. She mentors and provides technical support to Key Population, youth and LBQT movements in Kenya including Queerhive Kenya where she is a programs associate.

Ikechukwu Amamilo

Senior Technical Advisor, Clinton Health Access Initiative, Nigeria

Dr. Amamilo is a global health professional experienced in implementing sustainable health interventions across HIV/AIDS, malaria, and hepatitis programs. He has played leading roles in the introduction and scale up of optimal commodities and interventions for HIV in low-and-middle-income countries. Dr. Amamilo is currently a senior technical advisor with the HIV Access program of the Clinton Health Access Initiative.

Guita Amane

HIV Testing Lead, Ministry of Health Mozambique

Guita Amane is the national HTC focal point at Mozambique's Ministry of Health. With extensive experience in the field, she has contributed to the development of national guidelines for HTC. Her work has included defining priority populations for counseling and testing, devising strategies to improve access and quality of testing, and conducting training for healthcare providers and lay counselors.

Tsitsi Apollo

Deputy Director, Ministry of Health and Child Care Zimbabwe

Dr. Tsitsi Apollo has extensive experience in the public health system spanning over two decades. She was formerly the National Tuberculosis Control program manager and an HIV and AIDS Advisor for John Snow Incorporated. She is an active member of the National Medicines Therapeutics Advisory and Policy Committee in Zimbabwe. She has previously participated as a member of the World Health Organization Guidelines Development Group.

Ivan Arinaitwe

DSD Coordinator, Ministry of Health Uganda

Dr. Arinaitwe is the national DSD coordinator for the Ministry of Health in Uganda. He was previously the technical advisor for pediatrics and quality improvement services at Catholic Relief Services and the Infectious Disease Institute.

Fana Tefera Asfaw

Senior Public Health Specialist, CDC Ethiopia

Dr. Tefera Asfaw is a medical doctor with a master's in public health from Institute of Tropical Medicine in Belgium. She is currently working for CDC Ethiopia and holds the position of senior public health specialist for care and support program, technical expert for cervical cancer prevention and the management of advanced HIV disease.

Tamrat Assefa

Director of RPSCBD, ICAP in Ethiopia

Tamrat Assefa leads ICAP in Ethiopia's efforts for comprehensive HIV prevention, care, and treatment programs, HR capacity, system strengthening, and service quality improvement to achieve epidemic control. He was previously a lecturer in nursing and public health at Jimma University and as the national HIV and FP program manager for FHI-360.

Doris Abra Awudi

DSD Coordinator, Ministry of Health Uganda

Ms. Doris Abra Awudi is the project coordinator for the cooperative agreement in strengthening strategic information and laboratory capacity building under PEPFAR between the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and the Ministry of Health's (MoH), Ghana Health Service (GHS) at the National AIDS/STI Control Program, Ghana.

Elsie Ayeh

President, NAP+ Ghana

Elsie Ayeh is the national president of National Association of People Living with HIV in Ghana, NAP+. Her responsibilities include representing and coordinating NAP+ activities at the national level, while establishing and strengthening partnerships across various levels. Ms. Ayeh is also the secretary of the NAP+ Advocacy Committee, the treasurer of the Pan African Positive Women's Coalition (PAPWC), and a learning facilitator for UNCares in Ghana.

Stephen Ayisi Addo

Program Manager/Head of HIV, Ministry of Health Ghana

Dr. Stephen Ayisi-Addo is Ghana's National AIDS/STI Control Program manager and the head of the Ghana Health Services-MOH HIV Program. His background includes roles such as senior public health specialist and former WHO/TDR clinical trial monitor. He is a member of various national and international committees, including the National TB Advisory Board, Expert Committee on Schistosomiasis and Soil Helminthes, and the National PSM Committee, Ministry of Health.

Robinah Babirye

Program Officer, AY+ Uganda

Ms. Babirye is an HIV advocate for young people living with HIV in Uganda. She works with young mothers living with HIV under the Mentor Mother Uganda initiative. She was the Miss Y+2015/2016 and holds a bachelor's degree in Community-Based Rehabilitation.

Carmen Babodo

DSD Focal and PMTCT Clinical Assistant, Cameroon National AIDS Committee

Dr. Babodo is the DSD focal and clinical assistant for the prevention of mother-to-child-transmission (PMTCT) program in Cameroon. Her roles include, monitoring the implementation of Cameroon's National DSD Action Plan, participating in coordination meetings and contributing to the formulation and implementation of PMTCT policies and strategies in her country.

Pamela Bachanas

Senior Technical Advisor, CDC Atlanta

Pamela Bachanas is the senior technical advisor for the Division of Global HIV/AIDS and Tuberculosis at the U.S. Centers for Disease Control. She was previously the team lead in HIV prevention, and a professor at the Emory University School of Medicine. Dr. Bachanas received her PhD in Clinical Psychology from the University of Alabama.

Baker Bakashaba

Project Director, AIDS Information Center (AIC) Uganda

Dr. Bakashaba is currently the project director for the Reaching and Sustaining HIV Epidemic Control in Soroti Region – a regional HIV/AIDS project funded by the President's Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief (PEPFAR) through the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). He was previously the regional project manager for The AIDS Support Organization (TASO) Uganda. He is a member of the CQUIN Advisory Group.

Hudson Balidawa

DSD Technical Working Group Lead, Ministry of Health Uganda

Dr. Balidawa Hudson is a public health and monitoring and evaluation expert with vast experience in design, monitoring and research for public health programs in resource limited settings. He is also a pediatrician who has worked in design and implementation of public health interventions for maternal and child health, and clinical management for the last 20 years.

Solange Baptiste

Executive Director, International Treatment Preparedness Coalition (ITPC) Global

Ms. Baptiste leads community activists and allies across the globe to enable people in need, to access optimal and affordable treatment. Solange has over 17 years of global program management and advocacy experience. She has fought to amplify the work of communities including ensuring that data from community-led interventions like community-led monitoring is trusted in global health evidence.

Evelyne Baramperanye

Program Management Specialist, USAID Burundi

Dr. Evelyne Baramperanye is a medical doctor with 25 years of technical and management experience in public health, including HIV/AIDS, tuberculosis, STI and family planning. Dr. Baramperanye has proven experience in clinical and community HIV/AIDS comprehensive prevention and care services delivery acquired by serving a local NGO (ANSS) supporting PLHIV. She worked for FHI360 and served the Ministry of Health as clinician and manager of TB and HIV programs.

Adebobola Bashorun

National Coordinator, National HIV/AIDS, Viral Hepatitis & STI Control Program, Nigeria

Dr. Adebobola Bashorun is an insightful, dynamic, and performance-driven medical doctor with over 20 years of experience in medicine at clinical, public health, and policy-making levels. He is a well-trained medical and field epidemiologist, an administrator, a graduate of the Nigeria FELTP, and a public health specialist with MBBS and post-graduate degrees in Public Health and Public Administration.

Moses Bateganya

Senior HIV/TB Advisor, USAID Tanzania

Moses Bateganya provides strategic and technical leadership for the USAID and PEPFAR Tanzania Care and Treatment programs, introducing innovative and cost-effective approaches. His prior roles include director of technical support at FHI 360/Technical, director of EpiC (2018-2022), and team lead of the Priority Populations Treatment Team at CDC/DGHT (2013-2018).

Zurnaid Bay

MCH Technical Advisor, CDC Mozambique

Zurnaid Bay is the maternal and child health technical advisor at the CDC, where he is responsible for overseeing the planning, implementation, monitoring, and evaluation of HIV maternal and child health activities through CDC partners. His previous role included serving as the prevention deputy advisor at the CDC. Mr. Bay holds a degree in medicine and has completed a master's in Public Health.

Seble Mamo Bedaso

HTS Coordinator, Ministry of Health Ethiopia

Seble Mamo Bedaso is a public health specialist working at the Ethiopia Ministry of Health as the national HIV Testing Service (HTS) coordinator. She is responsible for ensuring the uptake of HTS by using innovative strategies and linking clients to treatment, care, and support services. She has a Master's in Public Health and a certificate of National HIV/AIDS Program managers in Pretoria, South Africa.

Laura Block

CQUIN Deputy Director, Management & Operations, ICAP at Columbia University

Laura Block is CQUIN's deputy director for management and operations at ICAP at Columbia University. Prior to joining ICAP, she supported health projects for several large international NGOs in sub-Saharan Africa and the Asia Pacific regions. She holds a master's in health research, an MBA from the Cornell Johnson School of Business, and a master's in health policy from Weill Cornell Medicine.

Koffi Simplicite Bohoussou

Assistant, Care and Treatment Department, Côte d'Ivoire National AIDS Program

Dr. Bohoussou is an assistant in the Care and Treatment department coordinating all interventions and stakeholders in pediatric and adolescent HIV Care and Treatment. He is also seconded to the Côte d'Ivoire PNLs as the DSD coordinator responsible for the differentiated service delivery coordination at the national level.

Jebet Boit

Program Manager, Key and Vulnerable Populations, Kenya Ministry of Health

Dr. Jebet K Boit is the program manager of key and vulnerable populations at NASCOP, Ministry of Health, Kenya. She previously led HIV prevention efforts at NASCOP. Dr. Boit is passionate about implementing HIV prevention and harm reduction interventions for the populations most affected by HIV/AIDS in Kenya.

Kouro Bousso

Head of M&E and DSD Focal, Ministry of Health Senegal

Dr. Bousso is currently Senegal's DSD Coordinator at the Ministry of Health's Division for the Fight Against AIDS and STI's, and head of the monitoring and evaluation office at the DLSI, where she leads the implementation of the country's HIV and STIs policies and strategies. She is a medical doctor, an infectious disease and public health specialist.

Adreas Isaac Boy

Medical Director, Baylor Lesotho

Isaac Andreas Boy is the medical director at Baylor Lesotho, where he oversees the clinical departments of the Baylor College of Medicine, namely pharmacy, social work, nutrition, psychology, nursing, medical doctors, adolescent clinics, and the psychosocial support departments.

Hamza Venant Burikukiye

Legal Representative, CCDP+ Burundi

Mr. Burikukiye works in advocacy, mobilization, and coordination efforts for CCDP+ Burundi. He was previously the traffic responsible at Bujumbura International Airport and a leader in several civil society organizations dedicated to combating AIDS and protecting human rights. He studied civil aviation with specialized training in HIV and Human Rights.

Horacio Caliche

National Implementation Advisor, ICAP in Mozambique

Horacio Caliche is ICAP in Mozambique's national implementation advisor, overseeing the execution of the prevention, care, and treatment work plan for HIV/TB. He also is the key populations focal point and the quality improvement HIV focal point at the national level for ICAP, effectively coordinating and leading community intervention strategies.

Moses Chananuka

Provincial Coordinator, Zimbabwe National Network of People living with HIV

Moses Chananuka has been working to create models that brings health services closer to recipients of care for more than 14 years. He facilitates the creation of DSD models with various needs for people living with HIV, tuberculosis, adolescent boys and girls, pregnant and lactating mothers, and HIV testing. He is eager to excel and expand the innovations for the betterment of marginalized communities.

Linly Chewere

Deputy Director, Care and Treatment, Ministry of Health Malawi

Linley Chewere is responsible for overseeing the five thematic areas that play key roles in delivering comprehensive HIV care, treatment, and support services for recipients of care in Malawi.

Thato Chidarikire

Chief Director for HIV Prevention Programs, South Africa National Department of Health

Dr. Chidarikire coordinates implementation of the national HIV prevention strategies, including HIV testing services and treatment, care, and support programs. She was previously the acting chief director for Child, Youth and School Health. She holds a PhD in Virology from the University of Witwatersrand in Johannesburg.

Matildah Chisanga

CQUIN Regional Operations Coordinator, ICAP in Zambia

Matildah Chisanga is a finance, accounting, and administrative professional with over six years of experience in supporting health funded projects in Zambia and Southern Africa. After six years as a finance officer with ICAP in Zambia, Matildah now supports the CQUIN project as a regional operations coordinator for finance and administration.

Ruramai Chisango

Public Health Specialist – Differentiated Care, CDC South Africa

Ruramai Lissa Chisango is a public health specialist. She provides oversight and technical support for DMOC and supply chain to districts and implementing partners. She assists with challenges faced by the President's Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief (PEPFAR) funded districts in South Africa.

Godwin Choga

Provincial Programs Manager, Zimbabwe Health Interventions

Godwin Choga is the provincial programs manager within the Zimbabwe Health Interventions. He leads the provincial team managing all technical aspects of the ACCE program, provides operational support, and coordinates and networks in line with organizational and national guidelines and targets.

Mariza Clarisse

M&E of DSD Focal Person, Rwanda Biomedical Center

Wokie Cole

President, LIBNET+, Liberia

Wokie Cole is the president of the Liberia National Network of people living with HIV, where she works with support groups, organizations, and the national networks in and around Liberia to ensure women living with HIV stay healthy and in care. Ms. Cole also works with international groups like PAPWC and ICW, which have helped to strengthen advocacy for better treatment. She personally went through a PMTCT program in 2010 with her son who is HIV negative.

Nacoumba Coulibaly Epse Yeo

Deputy Director, USAID Côte d'Ivoire

Dr. Nacoumba Coulibaly Epse Yeo is a physician serving as the deputy director of the RISE project led by Jhpiego in Côte d'Ivoire, funded by USAID. She previously worked for 15 years in a national NGO combating HIV/AIDS where she worked as a program monitor, regional coordinator, and technical director.

Aleny Couto

Head of STI, HIV and AIDS National Program, Ministry of Health Mozambique

Dr. Couto is the director of the National Program for the Control of ITS, HIV and AIDS at the Ministry of Health. She graduated in general medicine and Master in Public Health from Eduardo Mondlane University. She has extensive experience in Public Health, including implementation of prevention interventions, care and treatments and participations in elaboration of the guidelines at WHO.

Ethel Dano

HIV Prevention Care and Treatment Advisor, ICAP in Philippines

Dr. Dano supports the country director in providing oversight in the implementation of care and treatment activities for ICAP in Philippines programs. She also provides technical support to clinical staff on design, implementation, monitoring and evaluation of evidence-based HIV care and treatment services at ICAP-supported health facilities.

Belay Reta Derbew

Monitoring & Evaluation Manager, NEP+ Ethiopia

Mr. Derbew is a monitoring and evaluation manager responsible for related tasks of the Association of Ethiopians Living with HIV (NEP+).

Papa Oumar Diagne

Focal Point, Monitoring and Evaluation, Ministry of Health Senegal

Papa Oumar Diagne specializes in community health, serving as the focal point responsible for monitoring and evaluating differentiated service delivery in Senegal. His role involves overseeing the monitoring and evaluation of DSD initiatives within the country.

Phephile Dlamini-Maseko

CQUIN Operations Coordinator, ICAP Eswatini

Phephile Dlamini-Maseko is a CQUIN project operations coordinator supporting countries in Southern Africa. She is based in ICAP Eswatini.

Emily Kainne Dokubo

Deputy Global AIDS Coordinator for Program Quality, GHSD/PEPFAR

Dr. Dokubo is the deputy U.S. Global AIDS Coordinator for Program Quality at PEPFAR. She previously served as CDC director in Cameroon and in the Caribbean Regional Office, and as deputy director for programs in Liberia.

Gillian Dougherty

Deputy Director, Human Resources for Health (HRH), ICAP at Columbia University

Gillian Dougherty is the deputy director of the HRH unit, where she provides leadership for the design, implementation, and assessment of training and capacity-building initiatives. Her role is dedicated to enhancing the quality of health services across a diverse spectrum of health programs. Drawing on her expertise in quality improvement methodologies, she spearheads projects geared towards optimizing processes and systems and driving outcome improvements.

Lenhle Dube

National HIV Testing Coordinator, Eswatini National AIDS Program

In her role, Ms. Dube is responsible for coordinating national HIV testing, counseling services and the development of guidelines, standard operating procedures, and training curricula for innovations to HIV testing into Eswatini's national program, including provider-initiated HIV testing and counselling and home-based-testing services.

Charles Edge

Family Nurse Practitioner, CDC Atlanta

Charles Edge is a family nurse practitioner at the CDC. He is responsible for providing emergency response assistance to potential public health threats. He additionally provides local, state, and federal entities with public health guidance and information for public health emergencies.

Ginika Egesimba

DSD Advisor, National AIDS Control Program, Sierra Leone

Dr. Egesimba has over 16 years of experience in designing and implementing comprehensive HIV programs including differentiated HIV delivery in Nigeria, Burkina Faso, and Sierra Leone. He has a strong background in epidemiology, surveillance, research, implementation science, and quality improvement, and is skilled in grant development.

Peter Ehrenkranz

Deputy Director, HIV, Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation

Dr. Peter Ehrenkranz is the deputy director for HIV at the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation. Prior to joining the Foundation, he worked in Eswatini with the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Before that, he spent two years in Liberia with a joint appointment as senior advisor to the National AIDS Control Program and medical director for the Clinton Health Access Initiative (CHAI).

Williams Eigege

Regional Manager, CHAI Global HIV Access, Nigeria

Williams Eigege is a regional manager with the CHAI Global HIV Access Program, working to enable access to advanced HIV disease (AHD) products in low-and-middle income countries. He recently transitioned from the CHAI Nigeria HIV program, where he successfully co-led the adoption of the AHD package of care and enabled access to all AHD diagnostic and treatment commodities in Nigeria. He is a pharmacist and is well versed in policy adoption, quantification of health products, and capacity building of health care workers.

Jessica Clinkscales Ejike

HIV Clinical Service Delivery Advisor, USAID Washington

Jessica Ejike is a global health professional with demonstrated expertise in providing technical, strategic, and programmatic support to the design and development of public health programs. She is experienced in supporting HIV/AIDS and integrated health programs funded by the United States Agency for International Development (USAID) and the U.S. Department of Defense (DoD) in Africa.

Eleen Ekanem

Technical Advisor Differentiated Service Delivery, MOH Nigeria

Chinyere Eleen Ekanem is a technical advisor for Differentiated Service Delivery (DSD), providing crucial technical and programmatic assistance for DSD implementation in Nigeria. Her responsibilities include supporting the country's needs assessments, project management, and the design, implementation, and evaluation of workshops and meetings. She also facilitates online meetings and communities of practice gatherings among experts working on shared projects.

Wafaa El-Sadr

Global Director, ICAP at Columbia University

Dr. Wafaa El-Sadr is the founder and director of ICAP at Columbia University and an international expert in infectious diseases and public health. She has extensive experience in epidemiology and research on the prevention and management of HIV, tuberculosis, malaria, and emerging infections, among other public health threats. She is also the director of Columbia World Projects and director of the Mailman School of Public Health's Global Health Initiative.

Amaka Enemo

Human rights activist, AWAC, Nigeria

Amaka Enemo is a human rights activist who has fought for the well-being of key populations in Nigeria. She is a dedicated executive director of passion and concern for women welfare, and empowerment initiative and national coordinator of the Nigeria Sex Workers Association. She also represents the West African sex workers in the African Sex Workers Alliance (ASWA).

Mbewe Estella

Monitoring and Evaluation Manager, NZP+ Zambia

Ms. Estella Mbewe works at the Network of Zambian People Living with HIV/AIDS (NZP+) as the monitoring and evaluation manager. She is responsible for developing the overall framework and ensuring that M&E activities are aligned to organizational goals and logical framework. She also monitors project activities and develops M&E instrumentation tools as needed.

Fatou Fall

HIV Testing Focal, Ministry of Health Senegal

Dr. Fatou Fall currently oversees HIV counseling and testing at the Division for the Fight against AIDS and STIs within the Ministry of Health and Social Action of Senegal. Her responsibilities include defining policy and strategies, managing the country's screening programs, and monitoring the implementation of PrEP in health facilities.

Jonathan Flomo

Program Manager, Ministry of Health Liberia

Dr. Flomo is the program manager for the National HIV/AIDS Control Program, Ministry of Health, Liberia. He has extensive experience working in both clinical and public health settings. He is a medical doctor by profession and has successfully served two counties as County Health Officer.

Nathan Ford

Scientific Officer, World Health Organization, Geneva

Dr. Nathan Ford is a scientific officer within the Department of HIV/AIDS, Viral Hepatitis, and STIs at the World Health Organization in Geneva. He is also chair of WHO's Guidelines Review Committee. He holds a degree in Microbiology and Virology, a Master's in Public Health and Epidemiology, a PhD in Clinical Epidemiology, and a Doctor of Science. He is a Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh.

Dixon Jimmy Gamma

HIV Quality Assurance Advisor, USAID Malawi

Dixon Jimmy-Gama is the HIV quality assurance advisor at USAID Malawi. He provides strategic and technical leadership in HIV quality assurance and improvement programming for HIV care and treatment programs. Mr. Gamma also works on strengthening collaboration for the implementation of quality assurance and quality improvement for USAID HIV programs.

Irenio Gaspar

Care and Treatment Lead, Ministry of Health Mozambique

Dr. Gaspar is a medical doctor working in the Mozambican Ministry of Health as the lead of Care and Treatment at the National HIV/AIDS/STI Control Program. He has contributed to the design of many national level differentiated service delivery models, community ART models, and other differentiated service delivery models in the country.

Ibrahima Gaye

Senior Technical Advisor Clinical, EpiC

Mr. Ibrahima Gaye is a bilingual French-English social worker and project management specialist. He is the senior technical advisor clinical at the EpiC project by FHI360. With a wealth of experience in the healthcare system, particularly in public health, he has worked in both the public and private sectors, collaborating with various non-governmental organizations.

Megan Ginivan

Senior Program Manager, Clinton Health Access Initiative (CHAI)

Ms. Ginivan is a senior program manager with the Clinton Health Access Initiative (CHAI). Based in Harare, Zimbabwe, she manages the implementation of CHAI's HIV testing work in Eastern and Southern Africa. This is primarily through DRIVE, a four-year BMGF grant supporting ministries of health to build strong, resilient, nationally owned testing programs. Ms. Ginivan has an MPA from Columbia University, focused on public health in resource-limited settings.

Anna Grimsrud

Senior Technical Advisor, International AIDS Society – IAS

Dr. Grimsrud is a senior technical advisor at IAS. She holds an MPH and PhD from the University of Town. Dr Grimsrud is also a deputy editor at the Journal of the International AIDS Society (JIAS).

Setsabile Gulwako

National Monitoring & Evaluation Analyst, Ministry of Health Eswatini

Setsabile Gulwako supports and coordinates national AIDS program performance using M&E reporting systems. She coordinates with program technical leads and ensures routine availability of quality data to inform program performance. She also supports the documentation of achievements, challenges, and success stories.

Clorata Gwanzura

DSD, TB/HIV and Community Collaboratives Medical Officer, Ministry of Health Zimbabwe

Dr. Clorata Gwanzura is a public health specialist working with the national HIV program within the Ministry of Health and Child Care in Zimbabwe. She is responsible for DSD implementation for recipients of care on antiretroviral therapy treatment and TB/HIV collaboration at the national level in Zimbabwe. She is also the focal point for community collaborations.

Hiwot Haile-Selassie

HIV Strategic Information Consultant, WHO

Dr. Haile-Selassie is an epidemiologist in the Strategic Information Analysis and Use unit in the WHO Global Program for HIV, viral hepatitis, and STIs. Her work focuses on HIV patient monitoring, including strategic information for differentiated service delivery and data quality improvement and use. She led the development of the HIV testing and treatment sections of the WHO 2022 consolidated person-centered HIV strategic information guidelines.

Marian Enyonam Afi Honu

HIV Disease Advisor, HIV Strategic Initiative, Global Fund, Geneva

Marian Honu is an HIV disease advisor with the Global Fund's HIV team in Geneva. Her portfolio includes managing the $18 million Differentiated Service Delivery Strategic Initiative across 18 countries, the $25 million HIV Self-Testing Matching Funds across seven countries and the $25 million PrEP Matching Funds across six countries.

Macdonald Hove

Program Manager, OPHID Zimbabwe

Mr. Hove leads the provincial and district teams in the comprehensive implementation of HIV, TB, and TB/HIV programs, including cervical cancer screening and treatment.

Amy Huber

Senior Researcher, AMBIT South Africa

Dr. Huber is the co-principal investigator of the AMBIT (Alternative Models of ART Delivery: Optimizing the Benefits) project, which focuses on measuring the impact of differentiated service delivery. She holds a Master's of Public Health from Columbia University and a PhD in Epidemiology from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Abdulkadir Ibrahim

Executive Director, Network of People Living with HIV/AIDS in Nigeria

Abdulkadir Ibrahim is a community and social development worker. He is currently the national coordinator of the Network of People Living with HIV/AIDS in Nigeria (NEPWHAN). He has maintained a supervisory role over all administrative departments at NEPWHAN headquarters, providing leadership to all NEPWHAN projects.

Zerihun Hika Itana

Senior HIV Program Advisor, Ministry of Health Ethiopia

G. Moses Jackson

Care and Treatment Lead, Ministry of Health Liberia

Mr. Jackson is the national HIV care and treatment coordinator at the Ministry of Health in the Republic of Liberia. He has a background as a physician assistant and a Bachelor's in Administration. He holds certificates in ART and Long-Term Adherence from TICA, as well as in Pediatric ART from the Public Health Institute in Bangkok.

Jovin Jonathan

Manager - ART retention and Community Service Delivery, USAID

Jovin Jonathan is a public health professional from management and development for health, currently working for USAID Afya Yangu Southern Program in Tanzania as a manager-ART retention and community services delivery. He holds a Master of Public Health from Muhimbili University and a Bachelor of Arts (Sociology) from the University of Dar es salaam.

Catherine Joachim

Head of Programs and Health Systems Strengthening, Ministry of Health Tanzania

Dr. Catherine Joachim is the head of Programs and Health Systems, where she provides strategic oversight and coordination for the National Health Systems strengthening agenda in Tanzania. She develops program goals aligned with the National Strategic Plans, supervises grant implementation for the Global Fund, and ensures adherence to policies and guidelines.

Ima John-Dada

Focal, National AIDS /STIs Control Program, Ministry of Health Nigeria

Ms. John-Dada's responsibilities include developing and reviewing policy documents on HIV Testing Services (HTS), national guidelines for HTS and training documents for standardization of quality and effective HTS delivery in Nigeria. She is also responsible for coordinating national HTS activities.

Lyonga Jose Esther

Quality Improvement Program Specialist, CDC Cameroon

Lyonga Jose Esther is the Quality Improvement Program specialist at CDC Cameroon. In this role, she strengthens quality assurance and management systems and conducts site assessments to ensure quality client-centered services and program performance. She also serves as the HIV sustainability point-of-contact for PEPFAR Cameroon, supporting country-led efforts in sustaining the HIV response.

Songoro Juma

Senior Technical Advisor HIV services, EGPAF Tanzania

Dr. Songoro is a distinguished public health specialist with a remarkable career focused on HIV care and treatment implementation and the development of crucial guidelines and standard operating procedures to support the Ministry of Health in Tanzania.

Marline Jumbe

Regional Strategic Information Advisor, ICAP in Kenya

Marline Jumbe is a regional strategic information advisor supporting CQUIN member countries with DSD-related data synthesis, presentation, technical assistance, and capacity building. Previously, she served as the M&E specialist with LVCT Health and Director of Strategic Information with the University of Maryland, Baltimore.

Jessica Justman

Senior Technical Director, ICAP at Columbia University

Dr. Jessica Justman is an infectious disease specialist and global health expert and has worked to advance HIV prevention, care, and treatment in Africa and the United States by conducting HIV-focused epidemiology surveys and HIV prevention clinical research and overseeing public health service programs. She is an associate professor of Medicine in Epidemiology and senior technical director at ICAP.

Joseph Kabanda

Public Health Specialist- HIV Care and Support, CDC Uganda

Dr. Kabanda is a public health specialist providing national-level technical assistance to the Uganda Ministry of Health and stakeholders in planning, implementation, and monitoring tertiary HIV service delivery, including prevention and management of non-communicable diseases and advanced HIV disease, as well as the expansion of differentiated service delivery models in Uganda.

Lindiwe Kabasa

Global Support Hub Director, ICAP in South Africa

Ms. Kabasa is ICAP in South Africa's Global Support Hub director, leading the Johannesburg office. She is a strategic, visionary, results-driven professional with over 30 years of progressive experience in finance, human resources management, and operations.

Pappy Wa Banza Kakonda

Pediatric ART Specialist/Southern Province Office, Zambia

Dr. Kakonda coordinates and conducts capacity building and technical support interventions in pediatric and adolescent HIV/TB health services to optimize program and patient level outcomes among HIV infected pediatric and adolescent care recipients in Zambia.

Gift Kamanga

Technical Director, EpiC Project, FHI 360 Liberia

Dr. Gift Kamanga is the technical director at the EpiC Project, FHI 360 in Liberia, and is an adjunct professor of global health at Indiana University's Richard M. Fairbanks School of Public Health. His role involves providing technical leadership and data management for a comprehensive range of HIV service interventions supported through PEPFAR and USAID in Liberia.

Victoria Kamara

Training and Capacity Building Advisor and Team Lead, Jhpiego Sierra Leone

Victoria Kamara is the training and capacity-building technical advisor and team lead for the Western Urban Area at Jhpiego, Sierra Leone. She provides technical oversight and strategic direction with a primary focus on capacity-building. She also leads the Jhpiego Sierra Leone Western Area Urban district team to implement HIV/AIDS activities.

Herve Kambale

Consultant, ICAP at Columbia University

Herve Kambale is an experienced professional with over 10 years of progressively responsible experience in designing, implementing, and managing Health projects in developing countries. At ICAP, Dr. Kambale leads the design of innovative client-centered approaches that both serve the needs of people living with HIV better and reduce unnecessary burdens on the health system. He was previously a DSD technical advisor for the Eswatini Ministry of Health.

Serge Kelanindjoue Kanhon

Executive Director, Aconda, Côte d'Ivoire

Serge Kanhon Kélanindjoue is the executive director at Aconda in Côte d'Ivoire. His roles include collaboration with the Board, project implementation, human resources and financial management, data reporting, and decision-making. He has held several senior consulting positions at organizations such as WHO, FHI 360, and UNICEF and served as an Advocacy and Governance specialist at Chemonics.

Saidi Karemangingo

National DSD Technical Advisor, Ministry of Public Health Burundi

Dr. Karemangingo is the national DSD technical advisor seconded to the Burundi Ministry of Public Health and the Fight Against AIDS by ICAP's CQUIN project. Prior to his current position, Dr. Karemangingo worked as the deputy director of the Burundi National Program for the Fight Against AIDS and Sexually Transmitted Infections.

Elizabeth Katiku

Treatment Lead, CDC Kenya

Dr. Elizabeth Katiku is a public health specialist and treatment technical advisor for CDC Kenya's HIV/TB program. She is a member of the National HIV Treatment Technical Working Group and the National DSD and AHD Taskforce. She previously worked with CDC implementing partners as a senior technical advisor. She received her MBChB from the University of Nairobi in 2006 and her MPH from Moi University.

Cordelia Katureebe

National Coordinator for HIV Care & Treatment, Ministry of Health Uganda

Dr. Cordelia Katureebe is a pediatrician and child health specialist, currently working as a national coordinator for HIV Care and Treatment at the Uganda Ministry of Health, AIDS Control Program. She has over 15 years of experience working in clinical care, strategic planning, and implementation of programs addressing HIV care and treatment for people living with HIV.

Ingrid Katz

Director for Behavioral Sciences, Bureau of Global Health Security & Diplomacy, PEPFAR

Dr. Katz is an associate faculty director at the Harvard Global Health Institute, associate professor of medicine at Harvard Medical School, and associate physician at Brigham and Women's Hospital. Dr. Katz has spent the past decade focused on developing sustainable socio-behavioral interventions aimed at improving care for the most underserved in low-resourced settings, primarily in Africa.

Gift Kaunda

HIV Program Care & Treatment Officer, Baylor-Tingathe, Malawi

Dr. Gift Kaunda is the HIV Program Care and Treatment officer at Baylor-Tingathe in Malawi. In this role, he offers technical support and guidance to clinical mentors and lay staff across 95 health facilities in six Baylor-supported districts. Previously, Dr. Kaunda worked as a district medical coordinator within one of the program's supported districts.

Mathew Kawogo

Private Sector and Community Engagement Manager, NACOPHA, Tanzania

Mr. Kawogo coordinates the implementation of community-led monitoring (CLM) of HIV services and is the liaison for the Key Population Forum, USAID/PEPFAR, UNAIDS, the Government (MoH and LGAs), local CSOs and implementing partners on CLM implementation in Tanzania.

Stella Kentutsi

Executive Director, National Forum of People Living with HIV/AIDS Networks, Uganda

Stella Kentutsi is the executive director of the National Forum of People Living with HIV/AIDS Networks in Uganda (NAFOPHANU). Ms. Kentutsi is an expert in HIV/AIDS programming with over 15 years of experience in HIV work at different levels of HIV programming in Uganda.

Lawrence Khonyongwa

Executive Director, Malawi Network of People Living with HIV

Lawrence Khonyongwa is the executive director of the Malawi Network of People Living with HIV (MANET+). He has worked to improve the lives of people living with HIV for over 20 years by promoting appropriate and sustainable community responses to HIV and AIDS prevention, care, support, and impact mitigation.

Noela Kida

Executive Assistant and Administrator, ICAP in Tanzania

Ms. Kida works for ICAP in Tanzania. She has over 14 years of experience in office management. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and Public Administration from the University of Dar es Salaam.

Bactrin Killingo

Treatment and Education Lead, ITPC

Bactrin Killingo is the Treatment and Education lead for ITPC. He is a medical doctor by training and has been involved in community HIV treatment education and advocacy for the past 10 years. As a palliative care practitioner, Dr. Killingo has worked in resource-limited communities and has mobilized communities to advocate for increased access to HIV-related services.

David Kimosop

Project Management Specialist, USAID Kenya

David Kimosop works with USAID Kenya and East Africa Mission-Nairobi as project management specialist in HIV care and treatment providing programmatic and technical guidance. He has over 15 years of experience having worked as the regional health manager at Action Against Hunger, senior technical advisor at the Elizabeth Glaser Pediatric AIDS Foundation, PMTCT advisor at ICAP, and clinic site coordinator at NARESA.

Leocadie Koffi

CQUIN Regional Operations Coordinator, ICAP in Côte d'Ivoire

Leocadie Koffi is CQUIN's regional operations coordinator for West and Central Africa. She is based in ICAP's country office in Côte d'Ivoire and is responsible for leading day-to-day CQUIN regional project coordination activities for the West and Central Africa portfolio countries. She is currently pursuing a Masters in Project Management.

Eponon Guy Koffi

M&E Officer, PNLS, Ministry of Health Côte d'Ivoire

Koffi ensures the management and analysis of data-related differentiated service delivery programs at the national level for Côte d'Ivoire's National AIDS Control Program, including the monitoring and evaluation of DSD programs.

Djahoury Mathurin Kouadjale

Head of Care & Treatment Services, Ministry of Health Côte d'Ivoire

Dr. Kouadjale leads the Care and Treatment Department at the National Program for the Fight against AIDS (PNLS). With the care and treatment team, he works in accordance with the missions of the service to ensure the effective integration of HIV program activities at all levels of the health pyramid in Côte d'Ivoire.

Konan Blaise Kouame

Head of HIV Testing, Ministry of Health Côte d'Ivoire

Dr. Kouame Blaise is the head of HIV Testing at Côte d'Ivoire's National Program for the Fight against AIDS. In this role, he coordinates all interventions related to HIV testing.

Lubasi Kutoma Sundano

HIV Testing Services Lead, Ministry of Health Zambia

Ms. Sundano is the chief communicable and neglected tropical diseases officer at the Zambian Ministry of Health, where she coordinates the formulation, implementation, and review of policies in HIV, neglected tropical diseases and other communicable diseases.

Rudo Kuwengwa

CQUIN Clinical Advisor, ICAP in Zimbabwe

Dr. Kuwengwa has over 10 years of experience in HIV prevention, treatment, and care programs working with the Ministries of Health in Zimbabwe and the Kingdom of Eswatini. She has also worked with PEPFAR-funded implementing partners leading strategy, development, program implementation, and budget monitoring for HIV prevention, care, and treatment programs.

Brian Kwizera

DSD Technical Advisor, Rwanda Biomedical Center

Dr. Kwizera is a public health practitioner and is currently the DSD technical advisor for the Rwanda Biomedical Center/Ministry of Health under the ICAP-CQUIN project. He holds a bachelor's degree in Medicine and Surgery from the University of Rwanda and a master's in public health from the University of Bradford, UK.

Nazaguehi Patrice Ladji

Deputy Coordinator Director, PNLS Côte d'Ivoire

Dr. Patrice Nazaguéhi Ladji is the deputy coordinator director of PNLS Côte d'Ivoire. In this capacity, he is responsible for coordinating the health sector's response to AIDS and for contributing to the reduction of morbidity and mortality linked to STIs and HIV/AIDS through promotional, preventive, curative, and research activities, acting as interim director in case of absence.

Andrew Lambert

Technical Advisor, FHI360

Andrew Lambert has worked for almost 25 years in the field of HIV research, prevention, care, and treatment, with a special focus on key and priority populations. He worked for 10 years in HIV prevention research with the HIV Vaccine Trials Network and the International Partnership for Microbicides. He is one of FHI 360's LINKAGES/EpiC/HIV Division senior technical advisors supporting seven countries under USAID-funded KP/PP programs.

Henry Shey Landom

Executive Director, ReCAP+ Cameroon

Mr. Landom is an experienced HIV/AIDS psychosocial counselor with a 15-year background in facilitating access to care and treatment for people living with HIV. He is the executive director of the National Network of the Association of People Living with HIV/AIDS (ReCAP+) in Cameroon.

Anna Lawino

Project Director, TASO, Uganda

Anna Lawino is project director at The AIDS Support Organization (TASO) on the USAID LPHS-Ankole & Acholi Activity, supporting HIV and tuberculosis response in 220 public health facilities in South-Western and Northern Uganda. Previously, she served as director for HIV and Infectious Diseases at URC on the USAID Regional Health Integration to Enhance Health Services North Acholi activity. She is a certified physician and public health specialist.

Nicholas Leydon

Senior Program Officer for HIV Programs – Quality, Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation

Nicholas Leydon is a senior program officer at the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation focused on HIV program quality. Before working at the foundation, he was on the implementation side, conducting operations research, quality improvement, and lean management in a variety of health care settings.

Amani Lokossue

ARV Services Technical Advisor at the Prevention, Care and Treatment Branch
CDC Côte d'Ivoire

Dr. Lokossue is the antiretroviral services technical advisor at the Prevention, Care, and Treatment branch of CDC-Côte d'Ivoire. He is a physician, specialist in infectious and tropical diseases, and medical epidemiologist. He has been working in HIV since 2005. Additionally, he is the CDC-CI CQUIN Focal Point in liaison with CQUIN Côte d'Ivoire team.

Barry Longwe

Care and Treatment Lead, Right to Care Malawi

Dr. Barry Gomezgeka Quiniso Longwe is currently the Care and Treatment lead at Right to Care Malawi. He focuses on ensuring that HIV Care and Treatment interventions are clinically sound and evidence-based, as well as aligned with the priorities of Malawi's Ministry of Health (MoH), CDC, and other program beneficiaries.

Marvin Lubega

Program Manager, Access to Diagnostics, CHAI

Marvin Lubega currently serves as the program manager for diagnostics at the Clinton Health Access Initiative (CHAI) in Uganda. In this capacity, he leads the access to diagnostics portfolio and supports national efforts in HIV Testing Services Optimization. Previously, he held the position of senior coordinator for HIV Testing Services Optimization.

Priscilla Lumano-Mulenga

PMTCT and DSD Programs National Coordinator, Ministry of Health Zambia

Dr. Lumano-Mulenga has been part of Zambia's antiretroviral therapy (ART) HIV response from its inception, working in various organizations and in different roles. With a passion for children and adolescents, she is, through her roles, contributing to the pediatric AIDS elimination agenda and HIV epidemic control through the elimination of mother-to-child transmission of HIV.

Moses Luwunzu

Monitoring and Evaluation Officer, Uganda National AIDS Control Program

Luwunzu participates in the creation and enforcement of policies for effective data management of national ART programs at the Uganda Ministry of Health's AIDS Control Program. He facilitates the interpretation and use of M&E data, through review meetings with the MOH, implementing partners, and facility staff and devises the implementation of efficient and secure procedures for data handling and analysis.

Jean-Jacques M'bea

Strategic Information Director, ICAP Burundi

Dr. M'bea is a strategic information director for ICAP in Burundi and a regional strategic information advisor for the CQUIN project. Dr. M'bea started his career at the Epidemiology-Statistics department of the Côte d'Ivoire National Institute of Public Health, after which he led the M&E department at the National Child Health Program. Prior to his current role, he was with ICAP in Côte d'Ivoire for seven years, serving in various SI management capacities.

Tonderai Mabuto

Senior Scientist, Aurum Institute, South Africa

Dr Tonderai Mabuto is a senior scientist in implementation research at the Aurum Institute in Johannesburg, South Africa. His work focuses on promoting the use of implementation science methods to improve the implementation of new interventions and practices in routine public sector programs in Africa. He holds a PhD in Public Health from University of the Witwatersrand, South Africa and is a Postdoctoral Scholar at Yale University.

Armindo Mahawa

Community Care Specialist, USAID, Mozambique

Armindo Vasco Mahawa is currently a community care and communication advisor and team lead at USAID Mozambique, with a focus on serving as the focal point for community-led monitoring interventions, civil society engagement programs, and social behavior change communication programs for PEPFAR. He was previously the associate director for Community and Linkages at FHI360.

Alice Maida

Health Services Branch Chief, CDC Malawi

Alice Maida oversees the development and implementation of public health-related technical program interventions at CDC Malawi for HIV prevention, care, and treatment programs and has direct responsibility for day-to-day coordination of branch activities that support Country Operational Plan activities funded through the President's Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief.

David Makapela

Public Health Specialist - Adult Treatment Retention, CDC South Africa

Mr. David Makapela is a public health specialist with over 20 years of extensive experience working in health and program management, including HIV/AIDS and TB. His experience includes working for NGOs, the North-West Provincial Department of Health, National Department of Correctional Services, United Nations, and the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention in Pretoria.

Ntoi Makhongoana

HIV M&E officer, Ministry of Health Lesotho

Makhongoana provides technical assistance to the Lesotho Ministry of Health's Disease Control Department on HIV and AIDS and TB M&E activities. She is a monitoring and evaluation specialist with over 10 years of experience in HIV/AIDS projects. She is experienced in implementing M&E systems and developing and evaluating M&E strategic documents and plans.

Paul Makuli

Senior Data Manager at National AIDS Control Program, Ministry of Health, Tanzania

Mr. Makuli is the senior data manager at the National AIDS Control Program, Ministry of Health, Tanzania. He manages data for monitoring and evaluating HIV care and treatment programs. His responsibilities include coordinating the development, maintenance, and updating of health information systems for producing routine program reports.

Fredrick Makumbi

Associate Professor, Makerere University, Uganda

Fredrick Edward Makumbi is an associate professor at Makerere University's School of Public Health in the department of Epidemiology and Biostatistics. He conducts research in areas such as sexual and reproductive health, evaluation of health programs, clinical and community interventions/trials, equity, data science, and statistical analyses.

Ricky Malaba

Public Health Specialist, CDC Zimbabwe

Rickie Malaba provides expertise, technical assistance, guidance, and quality improvement within the PEPFAR Zimbabwe HIV program. Previously, he held positions as a senior program manager at ITECH, a health advisor, and a medical officer at the Zimbabwe Ministry of Health.

Lufuno Malala

Program Manager, Care and Treatment, Ministry of Health South Africa

Lufuno Malala has over 15 years of experience working at various levels of health service delivery at the South Africa Ministry of Health. Her primary role within the Ministry of Health is to strengthen differentiated service delivery for HIV/AIDS services.

Musa Manganye

DSD Technical Advisor and Technical Lead, South Africa's National Department of Health

Dr. Manganye provides the technical leadership to strengthen differentiated ART service delivery in South Africa through policy review and development support, capacity building, technical assistance, among other duties. Prior to this position, he served in various technical capacities with several NGOs and the CDC.

Kerry Mangold

Program Director: South-South Learning Network (SSLN), South Africa

Kerry Mangold is an experienced and well-networked public health professional with over 13 years of experience working in Africa. She is the program director of the South-South HIV Prevention Learning Network, an initiative of the Global Prevention Coalition.

Nthuseng Marake

HIV/AIDS Treatment and Care Officer, Lesotho Ministry of Health

Dr. Marake's responsibilities include improving the delivery of HIV/AIDS clinical services within the health system clinical policies, guidelines and training material, supporting the scale up of advanced HIV disease care, differentiated HIV service delivery, HIV drug resistance prevention, response and management, as well as supporting joint HIV/AIDS clinical supportive supervision to the district health management teams.

Alarice Marsh

HTS Lead, National Department of Health, South Africa

Alarice Marsh is the HIV testing services (HTS) program lead for South Africa's Ministry of Health.

Kenneth Masamaro

Public Health Specialist, CDC Kenya

Dr. Kenneth Masamaro is the lead for the HIV Care and Treatment Team at the Division of Global HIV and TB for the CDC in Kenya. He is a prolific clinician and public health expert with over 14 years of experience at primary level, mid-management, senior leadership, and advisory levels in the areas of HIV service delivery, implementation science, and policy.

Takura Matare

Senior M&E Officer, Ministry of Health Zimbabwe

Takura Matare is the senior monitoring and evaluation officer at the Zimbabwe Ministry of Health and Child Care. His roles and responsibilities include planning, development, and implementation, resource mobilization, budgeting, coordination, reporting, capacity building, and training.

Susan Matheka

CQUIN Project Assistant, ICAP in Kenya

Susan Matheka is the CQUIN project assistant based in Kenya. Her responsibilities include supporting the operational aspects of the CQUIN project team. Prior to this role, she held positions as a project assistant at the International Potato Center and as a research assistant at the Kenya Institute of Public Policy and Analysis.

John Bosco Matovu

CQUIN Regional Clinical Advisor for East Africa, ICAP in Kenya

John Bosco Matovu is a medical doctor with specialist training in public health, hospital management, and monitoring and evaluation. Dr. Matovu is one of CQUIN's regional clinical advisors leading the Differentiated HIV Testing Services stream of work. He has broad experience in HIV programming, including designing and scaling up differentiated service delivery for HIV testing, care, and treatment.

Sindy Matse

Acting Program Manager, Ministry of Health Eswatini

Sindy Matse is currently the acting program manager, primarily responsible for coordinating the health sector's HIV response. Previously, she held the position of PrEP and key and vulnerable populations national coordinator.

Ndeke Ange Mavula

National Executive Secretary, UCOP+ DRC

Ange Mavula is the national executive secretary and community engagement focal point for the Network of People Living with HIV in the Democratic Republic of Congo UCOP+. He is an activist and advocate for the rights of people living with HIV.

Allan Mayi

Associate Director, Technical Strategy, EGPAF Malawi

Allan Mayi provides coordination, leadership, and support across 12 EGPAF-supported countries in HIV Testing Services, cervical cancer, advanced HIV disease, and retention. He is also the project director for the Gates Foundation-funded AHD Project in Malawi, Lesotho, and Côte d'Ivoire. He has worked in the HIV/AIDS field for the last 20 years, providing clinical services, setting up HIV clinics where none existed, training, mentoring, and supervising clinical providers and program teams.

Stone Mbiriawanda

Principal Monitoring and Evaluation Officer, Ministry of Health Malawi

Mr. Mbiriawanda's roles and responsibilities include HIV data analysis and dissemination, supervising HIV data collection, entry, and cleaning, developing M&E tools and designing M&E frameworks, and writing HIV program narrative reports.

Nkoso Aime Mboyo

National Director, Ministry of Health Democratic Republic of Congo

Andrea Mbunda

Public Health Specialist – HIV Treatment, CDC Tanzania

Andrea Mbunda is a public health specialist for HIV Treatment at CDC Tanzania. In this role, he leads HIV care and treatment activities for various CDC-supported cooperative agreements in the country. Previously, he worked as a biomedical advisor in the KVP project (EpiC) and in various capacities at national and subnational levels in HIV care and treatment programs.

Christine Mburu

CQUIN Regional Operations Manager, ICAP Kenya

Christine Mburu is CQUIN's regional operations manager. She oversees the day-to-day aspects of regional project activities for CQUIN network countries. She has over 14 years of administrative experience and is based at ICAP in Kenya.

Mirtie Getachew Meselu

HIV/AIDS Program Coordinator, Ethiopia Ministry of Health

Ms. Meselu has more than 10 years of clinical and programmatic experience in HIV. Prior to her current role, she was an M&E officer for the Global Fund and IGAD regional HIV/AIDS prevention partnership program for five years at Amhara Regional State.

Janice Kangai Micheni

Project Director, CHAP Stawisha, Christian Health Association of Kenya (CHAK)

Dr. Janice Kangai is the project director for CHAP Stawisha at the Christian Health Association of Kenya (CHAK). In this role, she leads the implementation of a CDC-funded project, focusing on ensuring sustainable, high-quality, and comprehensive HIV/TB prevention, care, and treatment services. Her efforts are geared towards achieving the 95-95-95 targets and HIV epidemic control in faith-based and county government facilities.

Eddy Michel Minani

Program manager, BAPUD (Burundi Association of People who use drugs)

Eddy Michel Minani is the program manager and community mobilization officer for the association. He has worked in various program management roles. He has a degree in language and literature.

Simon Mkawe

Care & Treatment Technical Advisor, AMREF, Tanzania

Dr. Simon Mkawe is a medical specialist with more than twelve years of experience working in the clinical field as a practicing physician. He also is a technical advisor for the HIV program and leadership as district medical officer. He has been the HIV care and treatment technical advisor for Afya Kamilifu project, implemented by Amref Health Africa- Tanzania for the last five years.

Welcome Mlilo

Senior Program Manager, ZimTTECH, Zimbabwe

Welcome Mlilo currently serves as the clinical senior program manager, leading and managing Zim-TTECH's clinical work to support the national care and treatment program in TB and HIV/AIDS. He also provides oversight to clinical mentoring activities at hospitals in collaboration with senior clinical staff at these facilities.

Mhlahi Mlonyeni

Provincial Program Coordinator and Grants Officer, PEPFAR South Africa

Mhlahi Mlonyeni is a provincial program coordinator and officer representative at the U.S. Mission South Africa under the PEPFAR Community Grants Program, where she works on program development, grant management and overseeing implementing partners.

Miftah Kemal Mohammed

Central HIV Care and Treatment Adviser/Coordinator, ICAP in Ethiopia

Dr. Mohammed is an expert physician and a public health specialist with more than ten years of experience in advising MoH, RHBS, and training health workers in the field of adult and pediatric HIV care/treatment, TB/HIV, clinical services, and DSDs, within government and international NGOs.

Idah Mokhele

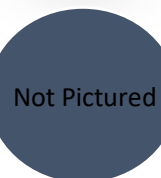

Senior Researcher, AMBIT, Zambia

Idah Mokhele is a senior researcher, working on the AMBIT research and evaluation project supported by the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation. The project is implemented by HE2RO in South Africa, the Clinton Health Access Initiative (CHAI) in Malawi and Zambia, and the Boston University School of Public Health.

Lerato Mokomele

Differentiated Care Specialist, USAID, South Africa

Ms. Mokomele leads and oversees USAID implementing partner differentiated care activities across 15 USAID-supported districts in South Africa, providing strategic direction. She works closely with the Ministry of Health in South Africa and other funding agencies in advancing differentiated health care services in the country.

Tshepo Molapo

HIV and AIDS Strategic Information Manager, NDOH South Africa

Tshepo Molapo is the HIV and AIDS strategic information manager, overseeing national capacity building and coordination efforts. He focuses on identifying and reinforcing capacity needs of national counterparts in surveillance, data collection, analysis, and evidence-based programming. His role also involves strengthening surveillance and monitoring systems, particularly health information systems, while focusing on maintaining data quality.

Lazarus Momanyi

DSD Focal Person, Ministry of Health Kenya

Dr. Lazarus Momanyi works at the Kenyan Ministry of Health NASCOP as a technical advisor for HIV differentiated service delivery (DSD). He is a medical doctor and public health specialist with over 12 years of experience designing and implementing HIV/AIDS and TB programs both at the sub-national and national level.

Seutloali Morebotsane

Program Director, EGPAF Lesotho

As program director for a prime HIV/TB Care and Treatment PEPFAR implementing partner in Lesotho, Seutloaji Morebotsane's job entails overseeing overall program activities implementation in line with the approved workplan to support the MOH to achieve the goal attaining and sustaining epidemic control through health systems strengthening, TA provision, as well provision of quality services.

Mokete Motlatsi

Nurse Educator, Lesotho

Nyakallang Moyo

Program Specialist, USAID Eswatini

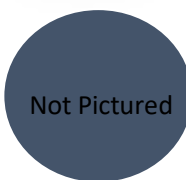

Dr. Moyo is a program specialist with USAID Eswatini, providing technical oversight for supply chain and the pediatric care and treatment of the HIV programs. Mr. Moyo joined USAID in 2020 after having served in Zimbabwe, Lesotho, and Eswatini for both government and non-governmental organizations as a medical officer.

Lydia Mpango

Senior Clinical Services Advisor, EGPAF Eswatini

Dr. Lydia Mpango has over 18 years of experience as a clinician in Uganda and Eswatini. She is the senior clinical services advisor for the ASPIRE project and the New Horizons collaborative for EGPAF in Eswatini. She provides technical assistance to the national AIDS program in strategic planning, coordination, implementation, capacity building, and quality improvement of comprehensive HIV services.

Busisiwe Msimanga-Radebe

HIV/AIDS Technical Advisor, World Health Organization, South Africa

Angelah Msomba

HTS Advisor, DOD, Tanzania

Dr. Angelah Philemon Msomba, is a dedicated medical professional with a fervent commitment to public health in Tanzania. She is currently the district program management officer and acting HIV testing services advisor at HJFMRI's Southern Highland Program.

Martin Msukwa

CQUIN Clinical Advisor, ICAP in South Africa

Martin Msukwa leads CQUIN's Quality Management for DSD stream of work and is the CQUIN clinical liaison for Malawi, South Africa, and Sierra Leone. Mr. Msukwa previously worked as a regional director for ICAP's OpCon project. He holds a Bachelor of Science in Nursing and an MPH.

Muhau Mubiana

Differentiated Service Delivery Technical Advisor, CIDRZ Zambia

Mubiana Muhau is the differentiated service delivery technical (DSD) advisor for CIDRZ. In this role, he provides technical assistance to the Ministry of Health for developing strategies to expand DSD models. He offers guidance on DSD models based on specific project needs and requirements.

Rachel Mudekereza

CQUIN Senior Clinical Advisor, ICAP in Côte d'Ivoire

Rachel Mudekereza is CQUIN's senior clinical advisor for West and Central Africa. She is based in Côte d'Ivoire. Prior to this role, she was the maternal and child health technical advisor with ICAP in Eswatini and ICAP in DRC. She has 20 years of experience working in the HIV field in central, southern, and western Africa.

Don Mudzengi

Public Health Expert, Aurum Institute, South Africa

Don Mudzengi is a public health expert affiliated with the Aurum Institute, specializing in tuberculosis research. He has conducted research on TB interventions and active case-finding in South Africa. He is also experienced in evaluating the cost-effectiveness of HIV interventions, including circumcision demand creation and tuberculosis preventive treatment (TPT).

Solomon H Mukungunugwa

Project Management Specialist - HIV Clinical Services, USAID, Zimbabwe

Solomon Mukungunugwa is a program management specialist for HIV clinical services for USAID, Zimbabwe. His responsibilities include overseeing PEPFAR program management. Previously, he held the position of deputy national coordinator for PMTCT at the Ministry of Health and Child Care (MOHCC) in Zimbabwe.

Amos Mulbah

Acting DSD Coordinator, National AIDS/STI Control Program, Ministry of Health Liberia

Mulbah is responsible for coordinating DSD activities for the Liberia Ministry of Health's National AIDS and STI's Control Program. Mulbah has experience as an HIV clinical mentor, coaching and training clinicians in over 30 facilities.

Fekadu Yadeta Muleta

HIV/AIDs Prevention and Control Lead Executive Officer, Ministry of Health Ethiopia

Fekadu Yadeta Muleta is the state minister of services and program wing office chief of staff and senior advisor at the Ethiopian Ministry of Health.

Chiedza Mupanguri

National ART Coordinator, MOHCC Zimbabwe

Dr. Chiedza Mupanguri is the national ART coordinator for the Zimbabwe Ministry of Health and Child Care, where she leads the strategic planning and development of evidence-based policies and guidelines for program activities that will foster best practices in HIV Care and treatment in Zimbabwe

Pragashnee Murugan

Program Officer for the International Treatment Preparedness Coalition (ITPC), South Africa

Pragashnee Murugan is a program officer for the International Treatment Preparedness Coalition (ITPC). Her core roles and responsibilities include implementing projects related to community-led monitoring (CLM), community engagement, advocacy, and monitoring and evaluation within HIV/AIDS and TB programs.

Reuben Musarandega

Associate Director for Strategic Information and Evaluation, EGPAF, Malawi

Reuben Musarandega is the associate director for Strategic Information and Evaluation with EGPAF in Malawi. In this role, he leads the monitoring and evaluation support and oversight team, providing countrywide support for strategic information and evaluation, building data analysis and utilization capacity, strengthening data management systems, and facilitating learning and program enhancement through global data analysis and dissemination.

Normusa Musarapasi

Associate Technical Director for Adult HIV Prevention, Care, and Treatment, Georgetown University, Eswatini

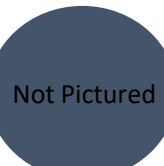

Normusa Musarapasi is the associate technical director for adult HIV prevention, care, and treatment. In this role, she provides strategic guidance and technical assistance to national, regional, and facility teams at the Ministry of Health and the Eswatini Georgetown University Center for Global Health Practice and Impact (GU). Prior to this, she held the position of regional technical lead at Georgetown.

Musonda Musonda

Community ART Advisor, USAID, Zambia

Musonda Musonda is the community ART advisor at USAID Zambia. Prior to joining USAID, Musonda was working for the Center for Infectious Disease Research in Zambia (CIDRZ), where she was the head of the community department.

Deo Mutambuka

Director, RRP+, Rwanda

Marineus Mwombeki Mutongore

Chair, Tanzania KVP Forum, Tanzania

Marineus Mutongore is the founding chairperson of the Key and Vulnerable Populations (KVP) Forum in Tanzania and a member of the Tanzania Global Fund Country Coordinating Mechanism. Under this role he leads an alliance of KVP-led local NGOs in Tanzania in various programming issues, including capacity building, legal literacy, PEPFAR and Global Fund dialogues, community-led monitoring, and advocacy for policy change.

Caroline Mwangi

Care and Treatment Lead, Ministry of Health Kenya

Dr. Mwangi leads the Care and Treatment section at the National AIDS and STI Control Program (NASCOP) within the Kenya Ministry of Health. In her role, she oversees the coordination of the HIV treatment program for both adults and children. She focuses on streamlining the ART supply chain, updating and training health care workers on new treatment guidelines and nutrition interventions, and collaborating with various donors, implementing agencies, and communities.

Clement Mwangi

Chief Executive Officer, Avant Premier Group Limited

Mr. Mwangi is the lead interpreter and CEO at Avant Premier Group Limited. He has extensive experience working for organizations to provide audiovisual and language interpretation support at events.

Lillian Mworeko

Executive Director , ICWEA

Lillian Mworeko is the executive director for the International Community of Women Living with HIV in Eastern Africa. She is a gender, human rights, and women's rights defender. Ms. Mworeko is the 2019 CHANGE's Courageous Change Maker Award winner, 2016 Uganda HIV/AIDS Leadership Award winner, 2015 Justice Makers Award winner; 2014 ICW Inaugural Sisterhood Award winner, and 2012 Maryhill High School Old Girls Association Award winner.

Henry Nagai

Chief of Party; Country Representative, JSI Ghana

Dr. Nagai is the project director and chief of party in charge of the PEPFAR-funded USAID Strengthening the Care Continuum and the USAID Global Vax projects, implemented by JSI in Ghana. He is a clinical consultant in HIV, travel medicine, and vaccination at the Ghana Canada Medical Center. He is a public health scientist and development practitioner with over 23 years of experience.

Afework Negash

Senior Care and Support Advisor, USAID Ethiopia

Afework Negash Ketema is the senior care and support advisor at the USAID/Ethiopia PEPFAR team. In this role, he acts as the agreement officer technical representative for various IPs and LIPs implementing the USAID community HIV prevention care and treatment activities.

Laurienne Nahimana

Head of Laboratory & supply chain management, Ministry of Health Burundi

Khumbo Namachapa

HTS Team Lead, MOH Malawi

Ms. Namachapa designs, plans, implements, and monitors the HTS program in Malawi, including the management of partnerships with stakeholders and grants and consultancies. She was previously a senior nursing officer at Queen Elizabeth Central Hospital and holds a Bachelor of Science in Nursing and Midwifery. She is pursuing a master's in Public Health at the Kamuzu University of Health Sciences.

Benson Nasasira

TB/HIV Technical Officer, Makerere University College of Health Sciences, Uganda

Benson Nasasira is the TB/HIV technical officer at the Infectious Diseases Institute, Makerere University College of Health Sciences, Uganda. In this capacity, he is responsible for overseeing the implementation of health system-strengthening activities aligned with the provision of TB/HIV services in two districts within Uganda.

Getrude Ncube

National HIV Prevention Coordinator, Ministry of Health Zimbabwe

Getrude Ncube currently serves as the national HIV prevention coordinator for the Ministry of Health in Zimbabwe. In this role, she provides leadership, guidance, and technical support for Zimbabwe's comprehensive HIV prevention strategies, which include coordinating various programs such as HIV testing services, voluntary medical male circumcision, and STI screening and condom programming.

Aime Ndayizeye

Director, PLNS Burundi

Dr. Aime Ndayizeye is the director of the National Program to Combat AIDS, Sexually Transmitted Infections, and Viral Hepatitis (PNLS/STI/HV) in Burundi. In this capacity, he is responsible for proposing policies and strategies for the prevention, diagnosis, care, monitoring, and social mobilization efforts aimed at reducing the impact and vulnerability to HIV/AIDS, sexually transmitted infections, and viral hepatitis.

Miranda Ndelu

Admin Assistant, ICAP in South Africa

Miranda Ndelu is an administrative assistant at ICAP South Africa. Her responsibilities include managing contracts, handling communications, and assisting with events and international conferences.

Soukeye Ndiaye

President, National Network of Associations of People Living with HIV Senegal (RNP+)

Ms. Ndiaye supports advocacy, resource mobilization, and capacity building for people living with HIV in Senegal.

Ndeye Bineta Ndiaye Ep Coulibaly

Head of the Care & Treatment office, Ministry of Health Senegal

Ndeye Bineta is the head of the Care and Treatment office at the AIDS Division of Senegal. In this role, she defines global care policies, provides training to providers on all aspects of PLHIV care, and coordinates the implementation and monitoring of all components related to the treatment and support of PLHIV, both for adults and children.

Alice Ndhokubwayo

Head of Monitoring and Evaluation Services, PNLS Burundi

Ndhokubwayo is responsible for monitoring the implementation of PNLS program activities, including data collection, processing, and reporting.

Adamson Ndhlovu

Deputy Project Director-Technical Services, JSI Zambia

Adamson is the deputy project director for technical services, overseeing critical areas such as HIV/TB prevention, care, and treatment, as well as COVID-19 and reproductive, maternal, and child health. Previously, he served as the technical director for ART/TB. He received an MBChB from the University of Zambia, a PGDip in Diabetes from the University of South Wales, and an MSc in Global Health and Infectious Diseases from the University of Edinburgh.

Cheikh Tidiane Ndour

Head of the AIDS and STIs Division, Senegal Ministry of Health

Dr. Ndour leads Senegal's National AIDS and STI Division where he manages, monitors, and implements the management of HIV and STI services at policy and operational level.

Morkor Newman

Medical Officer, EMTCT, World Health Organization, Geneva

Morkor Newman Owiredu leads the work on the elimination of mother to child transmission (EMTCT) of HIV, syphilis and hepatitis B virus, and women's health in HIV within the treatment and care team of the Global HIV, Hepatitis and STI programs in WHO Geneva. She formerly worked in the Africa Regional Office for WHO and has extensive experience in communicable disease prevention and control, HIV and STI programming, particularly EMTCT in high burden countries as well as reproductive, maternal, neonatal and child health programs.

Simon Ngeru

CQUIN IT Focal Point, ICAP in Kenya

Simon Ngeru is the IT Manager for ICAP in Kenya. Currently, he is pursuing a Master's of Science in software engineering. He has a passion for exploring the fascinating realms of health data and the world of automotive security.

Stanley Ngoma

DSD Focal Person, Malawi Ministry of Health

Stanley Ngoma is presently working at the Ministry of Health-Malawi at the Directorate of HIV, STI and Viral Hepatitis. He coordinates DSD activities among the stakeholders. Stanley believes in seeing goals being achieved through good teamwork and maximizing usage of the available resources.

Terence Ngueso

Continuity of Treatment Lead, USAID Kenya

Terrence Kataka is the continuity of treatment lead at USAID Fahari ya Jamii, where he develops and implements patient-centered approaches to engage and retain patients in care. With over 7 years of experience in HIV programming, Terrence has previously worked as an HIV prevention lead. He is currently pursuing an MSc in project planning & management.

Evelyn Wangari Ngugi

Deputy Associate Director, Service Delivery Pillar, CDC Kenya

Dr. Ngugi is a public health specialist with over 15 years of experience in HIV/AIDS Pediatric/Adult Care and Treatment, and TB program implementation, coordination, and monitoring. She has experience in managing large diverse projects in public health, as well as working with Ministry of Health and implementing partners on public health interventions at site, county, and national levels.

Diana Nicholaus

Public Health Specialist-Care & Support, DOD, Tanzania

Ms. Nicholaus provides leadership, updates and direct technical assistance to WRAIR/DOD implementing partners and the Tanzania Ministry of Health on HIV care and support areas including differentiated service delivery.

Zeye Nkomela

Program Officer, HIV Testing Services, Tanzania Ministry of Health

Dr. Nkomela coordinates HIV testing services across Tanzania, providing leadership and direction toward achieving global UNAIDS 95-95-95 targets to attain epidemic control in the country.

Gaetan Nsiku Dikumbwa

Head of Department Planning, Monitoring and Evaluation Division, MOH DRC

Mr. Nsiku has over 10 years of experience in health information systems management for DRC. He is an IT specialist and a data analyst focal point for TIER. Net in DRC implementing information systems through planning, monitoring, and evaluation, with a focus on data management

Kingsley Nukeri

Pharmacy and Decanting Manager, ANOVA South Africa

Peter Nwaokenneya

Assistant Director/Head, Treatment Care and Support
Nigeria National AIDS and STI Control Program

Dr. Nwaokenneya coordinates all the activities in the various units involved in the HIV treatment, care and support component in NASCP, Federal Ministry of Health.

Lilly Nyagah

Strategic Information Lead, NASCOP/Ministry of Health, Kenya

Dr. Lilly Nyagah is a medical epidemiologist, currently leading the strategic information unit of Kenya's National AIDS Control Program. She leads monitoring and evaluation of the HIV epidemic response in the country through strategic information activities including health informatics, HIV surveillance and research and national population-based survey implementation.

Tendai Nyagura

Consultant, Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation

Dr. Nyagura is an experienced public health project manager with a demonstrated history of working in the hospital and health care industry. Her specialization includes, epidemiology, HIV prevention, HIV, TB, and reproductive health.

Mohamed K. Nyambe

Antiretroviral Therapy (ART) Coordinator, Sierra Leone Ministry of Health

Dr. Nyambe leads the coordination of all activities involving treatment and prevention for Sierra Leone's National HIV/AIDS Control Program.

Clara Nyapokoto

National HIV/AIDS Program Officer, Eswatini National AIDS Program

Dr. Nyapokoto is the acting national ART coordinator for Eswatini. She provides strategic and managerial leadership of the MOH HIV care and treatment program where she supports the implementation of quality HIV/AIDS care and treatment services.

Patricia Nyembo Lwana

Head of the Care and Treatment Division, National HIV/AIDS and STI Control Program, DRC

Dr. Nyembo has more than 20 years of expertise in public health and more than 12 years of experience coordinating the activities of the care of people living with HIV in the DRC. In her current role, she supervises the activities carried out by the heads of services of the pediatrics, HIV/TB co-infection, differentiated care services, and advanced HIV disease divisions, and coordinates the development and implementation of HIV care activities.

Rose Nyirenda

Head of HIV Program, Ministry of Health Malawi

Rose is a PHD candidate with KUHES. She obtained an MSc in Community Health with University of Witwatersrand in 2002. For three decades, she has accumulated extensive experience in leadership, management, health policy, strategy, & research, having served at various levels of the Malawi's health system as a registered nurse/midwife, community health specialist and hospital director.

Nonsikelelo Nyoni

OVC Specialist, FHI 360, South Africa

Nonsikelelo Nyoni is a development program specialist with over 15 years experience in public health and environmental sustainability programs. She holds a Master in Business Administration degree from the University of Bologna in Italy and focused on green economy in her MBA .

Michael Odo

Senior Technical Advisor, National AIDS Commission, Liberia

Michael is a public health physician and epidemiologist with over 23 years of working experience leading in project designing, implementation, monitoring and evaluation in multiple sub-Saharan African countries, with hands-on experience in HIV combination prevention and treatment, including treatment sequencing for drug resistant strains.

Obinna Ogbanufe

Care & Treatment, Team Lead, CDC Nigeria

Dr. Ogbanufe is a team lead in care and treatment at the CDC, Nigeria. He has over 18 years experience as a public health physician providing technical leadership in clinical management of HIV/AIDS, developing strategies and approaches for public health programs implementation in Nigeria. He was the HIV Incident commander achieving an enrollment milestone of over 500,000 new HIV positive clients in 8 quarters.

Roger Martin Onana Onana

Director M&E NACC Cameroon

Onana is a statistical engineer with six years of experience in the monitoring and evaluation of the HIV program, in the development and evaluation of HIV strategies for Cameroon's National AIDS Council.

Violet Oramisi

CQUIN Regional Strategic Information Advisor for East Africa, ICAP Kenya

Dr. Oramisi has extensive experience in the management and implementation of national- and sub-national health programs with a focus on M&E of HIV treatment, PMTCT, HTS, and PrEP. She previously worked as a program manager in the Strategic Information Research Implementation Unit at NASCOP, Kenya.

Jude Orji

Senior Program Specialist, CDC Nigeria

Jude provides technical and programmatic support for the delivery of evidence based, cutting edge, HIV treatment intervention across CDC supported states in Nigeria. In this role he works collaboratively with relevant stakeholders including government and private players to achieve HIV epidemic control in Nigeria.

Josephine Otchere-Darko

Program Head, WRHI, South Africa

Dr. Otchere-Darko provides strategic leadership and direction to ensure technical, programmatic, compliance and financial integrity of the Wits RHI CDC EKN program and achieve PEPFAR/CDC/DOH project goals, objectives and targets. She ensures that the program is fully to contribute supported to the UNAIDS 95-95-95 goals.

Nelson Otwoma

Director, NEPHAK Kenya

Mr. Otwoma is the director for the National Empowerment Network of people living with HIV/AIDS in Kenya (NEPHAK). He is a member of the Kenya CCM to the Global Fund, the Kenya HIV Tribunal, and a board member of the global network of people living with HIV (GNP+). Otwoma is also a member of the expert advisory group of the Medicines Patent Pool Foundation (MPPF).

Efua Owusu

Senior Communications Officer, ICAP at Columbia University

Efua Owusu is a senior communications officer with ICAP in New York, where she serves as the CQUIN communications lead. She has a master's in journalism from the Columbia University Graduate School of Journalism.

Kwadwo Koduah Owusu

Care and Treatment Lead, Ministry of Health, Ghana

Dr. Kwadwo K. Owusu is the head of clinical care, National AIDS/STI Control Program (NACP), Ghana and facilitates the effective development and dissemination of HIV-related policies and strategies. He has extensive experience in the public and private healthcare sectors and is a member of several national health committees.

Elvis Oyugi

HTS Lead, Ministry of Health Kenya

Dr. Elvis Oyugi is currently the HIV prevention lead at the National AIDS & STI Control Program (NASCO), Ministry of Health, Kenya. He collaborates with stakeholders to enhance the coverage and utilization of HIV prevention interventions for both general and key populations, fostering partnerships in HIV prevention. Previously, he served as the head of the National Malaria Control Program at the Ministry.

Iyaniwura Ozimede

M&E of DSD Lead, Ministry of Health Nigeria

Ms. Wura A-Ozimede works in the monitoring and evaluation unit of the National HIV/AIDS, Viral Hepatitis, and STIs Control Program/Division (NASCP) of the Federal Ministry of Health. She has a B.Sc. degree in Biochemistry, Masters in Public Health, and a certification in project management in global health.

Claudius Paye

Data Manager and National M&E Lead, MOH Liberia

Mr. Paye is responsible for developing and managing the M&E database structure to ensure all monthly facility/community base reports are properly entered into the Health Management Information System (HMIS).

Peter Preko

CQUIN Project Director, ICAP at Columbia University

Dr. Preko is the project director for ICAP's CQUIN Learning Network. He has had roles with the Malawi MOH, CDC Eswatini, AED-SHARP, and Engender Health in Ghana. He has a BSc in Human Biology, and medical degrees from the Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology in Ghana, and an MPH from London School of Tropical Medicine.

Silas Quaye

Associate Director of Programs, CDC Ghana

Mr. Silas Quaye offers leadership for scientific, technical, and programmatic initiatives related to the implementation of CDC Ghana and West Africa Region HIV and AIDS programs. He holds a Master's in Public Health.

Miriam Rabkin

Director for Health Systems Strategies, ICAP at Columbia University

Dr. Rabkin is ICAP's director for Health Systems Strategies and the principal investigator for the CQUIN Learning Network. She has worked in the HIV/AIDS field for over 20 years, focusing on strengthening health systems to improve the delivery of prevention, care, and treatment services for underserved populations. At ICAP, she focuses on strengthening health systems, improving access to HIV services in resource-limited settings, and the design, delivery, and evaluation of programs for HIV and non-communicable diseases.

Bill Reidy

Deputy Director, Strategic Information, ICAP at Columbia University

Dr. Reidy has more than 15 years of experience in HIV/AIDS program implementation, research, and evaluation. At ICAP, Dr. Reidy is an investigator and collaborator on numerous studies and projects which aim to optimize HIV/AIDS programs. He has also provided key support for the implementation of large-scale and targeted government-led HIV/AIDS programs in countries including Eswatini, Myanmar, South Africa, Tanzania, and Kenya. Dr. Reidy is the CQUIN SI lead.

Marie Noella Rurihose

Head of HIV/STI Care, PNLs Burundi

Dr. Marie-Noëlla Rurihose currently holds the position of head of HIV/STI care and TB/HIV focal point at PNLs/STI/HV. Her responsibilities include overseeing the implementation of national guidelines for HIV and STI prevention, treatment, diagnostic procedures, as well as the clinical and biological follow-up of persons living with HIV/AIDS and STI cases.

Mastidia Rutaihwa

Program Officer/ DSD Focal, Ministry of Health Tanzania

Dr. Rutaihwa is a public health specialist working with the Tanzania Ministry of Health's National HIV/AIDS Control Program. She is involved in the mapping, adaptation, and scale up of recommended differentiated service delivery programs in the country as well as establishing national DSDM task force. Dr. Rutaihwa strives to make a lasting difference for recipients of care.

Karam Sachathep

Senior SI Manager, ICAP at Columbia University

Dr. Sachathep is a trained epidemiologist with more than 15 years of work experience that spans HIV public health programming, implementation science, and research across the African and Asian continent. She has extensive experience with research implementation and design of large- scale biomarker surveys and has collaborated and provided technical leadership on a variety of projects. She currently co-leads the CQUIN differentiated M&E portfolio.

Ruben Sahabo

Country Director, ICAP in Eswatini

Dr. Sahabo oversees the management of ICAP-supported programs in Eswatini, including strengthening the delivery of quality HIV/TB laboratory services for efficient patient management, strengthening epidemiology, and research capacity to track global health threats to improve health outcomes in Eswatini.

Emanny Sanchez

Health Scientist, HIV Testing Services Team, CDC Atlanta

Linda Sande

Consultant, Health Economics and Epidemiology Research Office

Sande works as a consultant for the Health Economics and Epidemiology Research Office (HE2RO), generating evidence on DSD and retention in HIV treatment as part of a wider team exploring these questions in Southern Africa.

John Joe Sandy

Registrar in Internal Medicine / HIV Clinician, Department of Defense Sierra Leone

John Joe Sandy's responsibilities include the management of HIV patient, and co-related conditions, and other medical conditions and infectious diseases.

Gabsile Shabangu

Deputy Director, Operations, ICAP Eswatini

Gabsile Shabangu is the deputy director of operations with ICAP in Eswatini. She also supports the CQUIN regional operations portfolio in various capacities.

Aminata Sheriff

Acting HIV Testing Services Coordinator, Sierra Leone Ministry of Health

Ms. Sherif coordinates HIV testing services (HTS), supervises HTS counselors, and supports the requesting of HIV test kits. She also works with implementing partners, including NETHIPS. She was previously the national PMTCT supervisor.

Chimuka Sianyyinda

Strategic Information Officer, MOH Nigeria

Sianyyinda's responsibilities include analyzing and interpreting pediatric HIV data and developing and reviewing HIV-related data collection tools.

Serah Sidique

Country Program Coordinator, Labyrinth Global Health, Sierra Leone

Ms. Sidique provides technical support to the implementation of the Department of Defense's HIV/AIDS Prevention Program (DHAPP) within the Republic of Sierra Leone Armed Forces.

Boniface Silvan

Head of Care, Treatment and Support National AIDS Control Program, Tanzania

Boniface Silvan Mlay has served as the head of care, treatment and support for the Tanzania National AIDS Control Program (NACP) since 2021. Prior to that he was a senior program officer for Care and Treatment at the NACP for ten years. He also worked as a program officer for the PEPFAR-supported organization, MDH.

Lindiwe Simelane

Director, Dream Alive Eswatini

Ms. Simelane is a 52-year-old HIV positive woman who has lived with HIV for over 20 years. She worked for the Eswatini National Network of People living with HIV (SWANNEPHA) for over 12 years as a regional coordinator leading several projects within the organization. She is currently the director for Dream Alive Eswatini, an organization for people living with HIV.

Suilanji Sivile

National HIV Technical Advisor and Advanced HIV Disease Focal Person, Ministry of Health Zambia and Head of Infectious Diseases at the University Teaching Hospital in Lusaka

Dr. Sivile is the lead program officer for HIV treatment, care and support for the Zambia Ministry of Health, where he is responsible for coordinating the formulation of guidelines and policies for HIV care and treatment in the country.

Tedious Sokesi

CDC Provincial Medical Officer, Southern Province, Zambia

Dr. Sokesi works as the TB/HIV technical advisor to the Provincial Health Office (PHO) Cooperative Agreement, where he supports the PHO meet the UNAIDS 95-95-95 targets using novel and internationally recognized best practices, strategies and public health approaches.

Idrissa Songo

Founder and Executive Director, NETHIPS, Sierra Leone

Idrissa Songo is the founder and executive director of the Network of HIV Positives in Sierra Leone. He is a passionate advocate for the promotion and protection of human rights, especially for people living with HIV. Ernest Bai Koroma, former Sierra Leonean president, awarded Mr. Songo the prestigious National Insignia Award – Member of the Order of the Rokel (MOR), for his commitment to HIV/AIDS advocacy in 2017. Mr. Songo is an electrical engineer by profession.

Caroline Elizabeth Stamatakis

Epidemiologist, CDC Rwanda

Ms. Stamatakis provides technical assistance on translating SI data to guide PEPFAR program activities and FETP activities. She was previously an epidemiologist at CDC in the Division of Violence Prevention supporting the Violence Against Children Surveys. Ms. Stamatakis has worked in various epidemiologic capacities on HIV surveillance and prevention and public health preparedness and response.

Lourenço Sumbane

Director, Mozambican Civil Society Platform for Health (PLASOC-M)

Mr. Sumbane represents PLASOC-M-Platform of Civil Society for Health in Mozambique. He is a trained educational psychologist with a passion for advocacy and human rights.

Gang Sun

Senior Advisor, UNAIDS, Geneva

Dr. Sun is currently the UNAIDS lead on HIV Testing and Treatment, including DSD. He has had extensive experience working with international health programs with a focus on HIV strategic planning, M&E, and systems for health. Dr. Sun was previously a senior advisor at the UNAIDS Global Center, where he led the work on universal health care.

Maaya Sundaram

Senior Program Officer, HIV Testing and Prevention, Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation

Ms. Sundaram provides strategic and operational portfolio oversight and management for HIV testing, global prevention ecosystem, and voluntary medical male circumcision. She was previously a senior manager for Research and Analytics at Clinton Health Access Initiative (CHAI). Sundaram holds a Master's in Public Administration and a Bachelors in Business and Information Systems

Maureen Syowai

CQUIN Deputy Project Director (Technical), ICAP in Kenya

Dr. Maureen Syowai is a medical practitioner with over nineteen years of experience, fourteen of which have been in public health practice. She is ICAP's CQUIN project deputy director, providing technical assistance to CQUIN member countries to scale up differentiated service delivery. She was previously a regional technical specialist with ICAP, providing TA on DSD, HIV care and treatment programming, and COVID-19 mitigation strategies through several donor-funded programs.

Geoffrey Taasi

Program Officer, HIV Testing Services, MOH Uganda

Taasi is a public health and HIV prevention specialist with the Uganda Ministry of Health AIDS Control Division. He has over 15 years of experience working on HIV testing services (HTS) policy and strategy, coordination, and capacity building, strategic information, research and innovations for HIV programs. He has steered the policy reviews and the adaptation of optimized differentiated HTS in Uganda and has authored and co-authored 29 peer review publications and journals.

Francis Tamba

M&E Coordinator and Focal Point, Sierra Leone Ministry of Health

Francis Tamba is a monitoring and evaluation officer working with the National AIDS Control Program with Sierra Leone's MOH.

Tapiwa Tarumbiswa

HIV/AIDS Program Manager, Lesotho Ministry of Health

Dr. Tarumbiswa is the HIV program manager for Lesotho's Ministry of Health.

Ambachew Tefera

HIV Prevention, Care and Treatment Program Director, Project Hope Ethiopia

Ambachew Tefera, MD, MPH, is the HIV prevention, care, and treatment program director. In this role, he provides leadership to the technical teams, oversees the management of project funds, represents the organization in national and international forums, and offers valuable technical assistance to the Ministry of Health and other public health system structures.

Marguerite Marie Nata Thiam-Niangoin

Health Promotion Advisor, USAID Côte d'Ivoire

Dr. Thiam is a public health specialist with decades of experience working on HIV programs for key populations. As USAID's health promotion advisor, her responsibilities include, contracting office representatives of Empower East and Risk Zero Project, which targets key populations. She is also the PrEP focal point for USAID in Côte d'Ivoire.

Orrin Tiberi

Monitoring and Evaluation Advisor, Mozambique Ministry of Health

Orrin Tiberi works at the Mozambique MOH HIV Program, where he focuses on care and treatment and health systems strengthening. He arrived in Mozambique with the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention in health information systems. He holds a Master's in Public Health.

Tiruye Dantew Chufa

Transition Regions M&E Manager, Ministry of Health Ethiopia

Ms. Chufa works as the transition regions M&E manager at Ethiopia's Ministry of Health, where she produces quarterly, annual plans, and performance reports. She also participates in research and evaluation works, organizing integrated supportive supervisions, and national joint review and planning meetings.

Mamataha Tlhomola

National HIV Testing Services Coordinator, Lesotho Ministry of Health

Ms. Tlhomola's roles and responsibilities include the promotion of HIV testing and counseling as a gateway to comprehensive HIV and AIDS services and to ensure the quality of HTS provision. She also facilitates training and adherence to national standards.

Maxcy Kukor Tobii

HIV Prevention Coordinator, National AIDS Control Program, Liberia

Ms. Tobii supervises and coordinates HIV prevention activities in collaboration with other units and partners at Liberia's National AIDS Control Program. She also supervises the activities of the HIV testing, IEC/BCC and sexually transmissible infections leads of the prevention unit.

Mamorapeli Ts'oeu

PMTCT/Pediatrics Specialist, CDC Lesotho

Ms. Ts'oeu serves as the PEPFAR interagency lead at CDC Lesotho, providing evidence-based advice and recommendations on pediatric and PMTCT policies, procedures, guidelines, tools, and standards. She is also the cervical cancer and PMTCT/ pediatric HIV care and treatment point of contact for CDC Lesotho. As part of her responsibilities, Ms. Ts'oeu supports clinical implementing partner EGPAF on program monitoring.

Kabengele Alain Dominique Tshilumba

Head of Department, Care and Support Division, National HIV/AIDS and STI Control Program (PNLS), DRC

Mr. Tshilumba's role involves monitoring care activities for recipients of care with advanced HIV disease and monitoring differentiated service delivery activities for people living with HIV/TB co-infection.

Banza Elie Twite

Head of Department and Quality Assurance Officer for HIV Services and Care, PNLS Democratic Republic of Congo

Dr. Twite provides expertise in quality improvement, particularly in the implementation of HIV/AIDS care and services in the DRC.

Nicolas Vako

Executive Director, Ivorian Network of Organizations of People Living with HIV

Nicolas Vako is the executive director of the Ivorian Network of People Living with HIV. Prior to this position, he was the president of the Network for HIV/Hepatitis and Tuberculosis co-infection, and regional delegate for the Red Cross and the Red Crescent. Mr. Vako was also secretary general of the Côte d'Ivoire Red Cross. He has a master's in communications for development.

Greet Vandebriel

Technical Director, ICAP in Burundi

Greet Vandebriel is the technical director for ICAP in Burundi and regional clinical advisor and TB/HIV lead for ICAP's CQUIN project. She is a medical doctor specialized in tropical medicine and public health with advanced training in TB and TB/HIV management, and quality improvement. In her role, she provides direction, coordination, and technical oversight for the RISE (HIV Care and Treatment) program in Burundi and provides technical support to the RISE program in Côte d'Ivoire.

Binah Vinodha

PEPFAR Community Grants Coordinator – KZN South Africa

Ms. Vinodha provides financial and programmatic oversight for PEPFAR-community grant partners in KZN. She develops innovative and cross-cutting monitoring tools, provides oversight and assists program partners in preparing annual budgets to ensure costs remain within budget.

Natalie Vlahakis

Community Interventions Specialists, CIDRZ Zambia

Dr. Natalie Vlahakis Mathetha, is a community interventions specialist with 15 years of experience in the public health sector and over 10 years of experience in HIV programs, policies, and initiatives. She currently leads community components of CIDRZ's HIV program, which include DSD, HIV testing, and HIV prevention. She also leads the Global Fund Differentiated Service Delivery Strategic Initiative, where CIDRZ is the local technical assistance partner.

Rose Wafula

Head, National AIDS & STI Control Program (NASCO), Kenya

Rose Wafula is a medical doctor and public health specialist with a passion for women, adolescent and children's health. She has over 17 years of experience in health with substantial experience in developing, implementing, and monitoring public health programs.

Jeffrey Walimbwa

Program Manager, ISHTAR MSM, Kenya

Mr. Walimbwa is an experienced evidence-based HIV and sexual health programmer and has sat on a variety of technical working groups at the national level. He has a keen interest in community research and is a co-chair of the G10 -- a research agency for Kenya's Gay and Lesbian Coalition. He is a member of the CQUIN Advisory Group.

Cassia Wells

Senior Technical Advisor, Adult HIV Prevention, Care & Treatment
ICAP Clinical & Laboratory Unit

Dr. Wells provides technical assistance on numerous PEPFAR-supported global ICAP projects, with a particular focus on HIV prevention for key populations and HIV-related stigma. She has a medical degree from Stanford University, a master's in public health from Johns Hopkins University, and a master's in social psychology from Stanford University. She is board-certified in internal medicine and preventive medicine.

Ekow Wiah

Senior Data and IT Manager, Ghana National AIDS/STI Control Program

Mr. Wiah is a senior data and IT manager with Ghana's National AIDS and STI Control Program. He manages the HIV client database in the DHIS2 system. Since 2009, Mr. Wiah has contributed to the data analysis and report writing for the HIV Sentinel Survey. In addition, he is an active member of the National HIV Estimates team. He also specializes in developing customized database applications and tools.

Lynne Wilkinson

Differentiated Service Delivery Technical Advisor, South Africa

Lynne Wilkinson is a technical consultant with the IAS and a research associate with the University of Cape Town. Ms. Wilkinson has an MSc in Global Health and Development. She has been implementing HIV programs since 2005 predominantly in South Africa. She specializes in differentiated service delivery across the cascade and supports countries in east and southern Africa in DSD policy development and model design.

Michelle Williams Sherlock

Epidemiologist, CDC Atlanta

Michelle Williams-Sherlock is an epidemiologist on the service delivery team in the HIV Care and Treatment Branch, Division of Global HIV and TB, CDC. Her primary area of focus is life-long continuity of HIV treatment. In her headquarter role, she supports several CDC PEPFAR country programs. Prior to joining CDC, she worked at UNAIDS and the Office of the Global AIDS Coordinator. Michelle holds an MPH from George Washington University's School of Public Health.

Onesimus Yongwa

Technical Advisor Global Fund DSD-SI Project at PSI/ACMS, Cameroon

Mr. Yongwa provides technical assistance to principal recipients of Global Fund grants in Cameroon. He serves as primary contact for consultants, WHO in the country, local authorities, and the Cameroon Ministry of Health. He also develops national guidelines, training materials, M&E tools, and demand creation materials for HIV self-testing. Yongwa also supported the country in the Global Fund grant writing for the GC7.

Gerald Younge

Program Manager, National AIDS Control Program, Sierra Leone

Dr. Younge oversees Sierra Leone's national HIV/AIDS response, where he works and collaborates with the National AIDS Secretariat and other partners to monitor implementation of HIV activities and report HIV activities to the Ministry of Health.

Ahmed Abdul Rahman Yussif

Director for Strategic Information, JSI Ghana

Mr. Yussif leads strategic information activities of JSI-led projects in Ghana. He leads capacity building on monitoring, evaluation, accountability, and learning to project staff and stakeholders, including CSOs in developing and implementing data analysis, use, and dissemination strategy.

Jennifer Zech

Senior Project Manager, Research Unit, ICAP at Columbia University

Jennifer Zech is a public health professional with over eight years of experience working on health care improvement programs and research studies in collaboration with nonprofits, academic institutions, health care systems, industry partners, regulators, foundations, and government agencies. She is a senior project manager at ICAP where she manages a portfolio of research studies, evaluations and public health projects.

Isaac Zulu

Medical Epidemiologist, HIV Care and Treatment Branch, Division of Global HIV/AIDS and Tuberculosis, CDC

Dr. Zulu is a medical epidemiologist on the Adult HIV Treatment Team, HIV Care and Treatment Branch (HCTB), Division of Global HIV/AIDS and Tuberculosis at the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, where he co-leads the Linkage Retention and Service Delivery Unit. Dr. Zulu is also a member of the CQUIN Advisory Group.